An Act to render valid Indentures of Apprenticeship allowed only by Two Justices acting for the County in which the Parish from which such Apprentices shall be bound, and for the County in which the Parish into which such Apprentices shall be bound; and also for remedying defective Executions of Indentures by Corporations. [25th August 1833.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the binding of Parish Apprentices, it is amongst other things enacted, that in all Cases where the Residence or Establishment of Business of the Person or Persons to whom any Child shall be bound shall be within a different County or Jurisdiction of the Peace from that within which the Place by the Officers whereof such Child shall be bound shall be situated, and in all other Cases where the Justices of the Peace for the District or Place within which the Place by the Officers whereof such Child shall be bound shall be situated, and who shall give the Allowance of the Indenture by which such Child shall be bound, shall not have Jurisdiction, except Indentures by which such Child shall be bound, at any Time after the First Day of October therein mentioned, shall be allowed, as well by Two Justices of the Peace for the County or District within which the Place by the Officers of which such Child shall be bound shall be situated, as by Two Justices of the Peace for the County or District within which the Place shall be situated wherein such Child shall be intended to serve: Provided always, that no Indenture shall be allowed by any Justice of the Peace for the County into which such Child shall be bound, who shall be engaged in the same Business, Employment, or Manufacture in which the Person to whom such Child shall be bound is engaged; and Statute shall be given to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place in which such Child shall be intended to serve as Apprenticeship, before any Assize of the Peace for the County or District within which such Parish or Place shall be shall allow such Indenture, and such Notice shall be given before such Justice shall sign such Indenture, unless one of such Overseers shall attend such Justice and admit such Statute: And whereas, in many Instances, Petty Sessions are held weekly in Market Towns near adjoining the Borders of the County in which such Market Towns are situated, and the Justices holding such Petty Sessions act as well for the County adjoining as for the County where such Petty Sessions are held, and transact the Business for large Districts in both Counties at such weekly Petty Sessions on Market Days, to the great Advantage, Convenience, and Saving of Expence to the several Parishes and Villages whose Officers have to attend such Petty Sessions: And whereas since the passing of the said Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third numerous Indentures of Apprenticeship have been allowed by Two Justices acting and acting at such Petty Sessions for the County within which the Place by the Officers whereof such Child shall be bound is situated, and by the same Two Justices acting also as Justices for the County within which the Place is situated wherein such Child shall be intended to serve, such Justices concerning that, as they were acting Justices for both Counties, they were entitled to allow such Indenture accordingly: And whereas Doubts have lately arisen whether the Allowances of such Two Justices, accordingly they act as Justices for both Counties, are valid and effectual, or whether it is not necessary that such Indentures should be allowed by Four Justices, Two acting for one County, and Two for the other only; and the Settlement of the numerous Persons who have already served and are now serving under Indentures allowed by Two Justices acting for both Counties in manner aforesaid will be set aside, to their manifest Injury: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act all Indentures for the binding of Parish Apprentices which have been previous to the passing of this Act allowed, and shall hereafter be allowed, by Two Justices of the Peace acting as well for the County or District within which the Place by the Officers of which such Child shall be bound shall be intended, as for the County or District where which the Place shall be situated wherein such Child shall be intended to serve, shall be deemed and taken to be as good, valid, and effectual, so all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been allowed by Two Justices of the Peace acting only for the County or District in which the Place from which such Child shall be bound is situated, and also by Two other Justices of the Peace acting only for the County or District within which the Place shall be situated in which such Child shall be intended to serve.

II. And whereas by divers Acts of Parliament heretofore made and passed, the Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, or other Officers of incorporated Hundreds, Parishes, and other Districts are by the said Acts of Parliament respectively authorized to bind poor Children Apprentices in the Manner by the said Acts of Parliament respectively prescribed and directed: And whereas the said Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, and other Officers have bound out poor Children Apprentices by Indentures, to which the said Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, and other Officers have been, by their Descriptions as Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, or other Officers of such incorporated Hundreds, Parishes, and other Districts respectively, made Parties of the one Part, or to which they have, by their said Descriptions respectively, been binding Parties, and which Indentures have been executed by the said Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, and other Officers by affixing thereto the Seal of the Corporation of which they are Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, and Officers respectively, and in no other Manner by them: And whereas Doubts have been entertained as to the Effect and Validity of Indentures so executed; and it is desirable to remove such Doubts: be it declared and enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act in all Cases where any Indenture for the binding out poor Children Apprentices have been heretofore or shall be hereafter executed by any Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, or other Officers of any Hundreds, Parishes, or other Districts now incorporated or hereafter to be incorporated under and by virtue of any Act of Parliament, by affixing thereto the Seal of the Corporation of which they are or shall be Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, or other Officers respectively, such Execution of the said Indentures respectively shall be deemed and taken to be as good, valid, and effectual Execution of the said Indentures respectively by the said Directors, Guardians, Acting Guardians, or other Officers of such incorporated Hundred, Parishes, or other Districts respectively.

III. And whereas it is expedient that Justices of the Peace in every City, Borough, or Town Corporate should have concurrent Jurisdiction with County Magistrates in apprehending any Child or Children within the Limits of such City, Borough, or Town Corporate: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act every Indenture for the binding of Parish Apprentices within any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, shall be allowed by Two Justices of the Peace, one of such Justices acting for and on behalf of the County, and the other of such Justices acting for and on behalf of the City, Borough, or Town Corporate within the Limits of which such Child shall be bound.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to effect or set aside any Decrees or Judgments made or given in any Court of Judicature respecting any such Indentures.

[28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS a certain Wharf situate on the Southern Shore of the River Thames at Woodcock in the County of Kent, to the Westward of His Majesty's Dockyard there, called Trinity Wharf otherwise Heaven's Wharf, and also a certain other Wharf situate to the Westward thereof, and near or adjoining thereto, called Long's Wharf, do, by projecting into the River, impede the Current of the Water, and, by projecting Edges and otherwise, form an increasing Bank of Mud on the Shore, to the great Obstruction of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels having Occasion to lay near to or to enter the Docks and Basin of the said Dockyard, and it is necessary and expedient that such Obstructions should be removed and removed: And whereas, with a view to the Attainment of that End, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom have recently purchased, in Trust for the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Public Service, the aforesaid Wharf called Trinity Wharf otherwise Heaven's Wharf, with the Buildings thereon, and the Site for laying Ships and Vessels on each Side of the said Wharf, together with other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, for the Residue of a certain Term of Ninety-nine Years from the Twelfth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and ten, granted therein by John Bowyer Esquire (since deceased), by an Indenture of Demise, bearing Date the Twenty-first Day of February One thousand eight hundred and ten, at the yearly Rent of One hundred and eighty-six Pounds: And whereas, for further and more fully and effectually enabling the said Commissioners to abate and remove the Obstructions aforesaid, and also for the Improvement of the said Dockyard, and for the permanent Use and Convenience of His Majesty's Naval Service, it is necessary that the Freehold and Indebtedness appertaining to the Determination of the said Term of Ninety-nine Years, of and in the said last-mentioned Wharf and Ships, and also the immediate Possession of Part of the said Wharf called Long's Wharf, and the Indebtedness thereof in Fee Simple, should be acquired for the Public Service from the respective Owners of the same, and that the said yearly Rent of One hundred and eighty-six Pounds, or an appropriate Part thereof, should be extinguished; but as Difficulties and Delays in attaining these Objects have arisen and may arise in respect of the Title of Parties claiming Interests in the said Wharf and Premises, and from various other Causes, so that a Remedy for such Public Inconvenience and Obstructions cannot be effected, nor the Purposes aforesaid accomplished, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for carrying the Purposes of this Act into execution, and all Acts, Matters, and Things authorized or necessary to be done or executed by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act may be done and executed by any Two of them, and the same shall be as valid and effectual as if done and executed by all the said Commissioners.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to repeal the several Duties payable on Excise Licences in Great Britain and Ireland, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to amend the Law for granting Excise Licences, it is amongst other things enacted, that no Excise Licence shall be granted under or by Authority of that Act for the Sale of any Beer, Cider, or Perry by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in the House or Premises of the Person or Persons applying for such Licence, to any Person or Persons who shall not produce, at the Time of applying for such Licence, a Certificate or Authority then in force, to him, her, or them in that behalf granted in due Form of Law by Justices of the Peace or Magistrates, or other competent Persons, for such Person or Persons applying for such Licence to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House; and any Licence granted to any other Person than aforesaid is declared to be null and void: And whereas the Laws for granting such Certificate or Authority by the Justices of the Peace and Magistrates in Ireland have become confused, doubtful, and complicated, and the requiring the said Certificate or Authority imposes great Difficulties and Hardships on Persons applying to be an licensee, and it is expedient to amend the said Laws, and to authorize the proper Officers of Excise in Ireland to grant such Licences as aforesaid to the same Persons and at or for the same Houses as shall have been licensed in the Year last immediately preceding, without requiring the Production of any such Certificate or Authority: And whereas the Laws for regulating the Conduct of Persons licensed to sell Wine, Spirits, Beer, Ale, and Cider by Retail in Ireland, to be drunk or consumed as the Persons, have become very numerous and complicated, and it would greatly tend to the public Benefit to amend and simplify the same, and for that Purpose to collect into One Act the several Regulations and Provisions thereof: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officers of Excise in Ireland to grant to the same Persons and at and for the same Houses as shall have been licensed in the Year last immediately preceding, and whose Licences shall not have been withdrawn or annulled, upon the Production of a Certificate signed by Six Householdors of the Parish (Two of them being Resident of the same or next adjoining Township, or Street if in a City or Town, in which such House is situate) in the good Character of the Applicant, and so for peaceable and orderly Manner in which said House has been conducted in the past Year, a Licence or Licences for the Sale of Beer, Cider, and Spirits, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, to sell in Ireland by Retail, in any House specified in such Licence, Beer, Cider, and Spirits respectively to be consumed in such House, without requiring the Production of any Certificate or other Authority from any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate, or other Person or Persons whatever, as the Persons respectively applying for such Licences complying with the Conditions of this Act; any thing in any Act or Acts heretofore made or in force at the Time of the passing of this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

An Act for carrying into effect Two Conventions with the King of the French for suppressing the Slave Trade. [25th August 1833.]

WHEREAS a Convention was concluded between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the French for rendering more effectual the Means of suppressing the criminal Traffic called the Slave Trade, and signed at Paris on the Thirtieth Day of November in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one: And whereas by the First Article of the said Convention it was agreed that the mutual Right of Search might be exercised on board the Vessels of each Nation, but only within the Waters herein-after described; namely,

First, Along the Western Coast of Africa, from Cape Fied to the Distance of Ten Degrees to the South of the Equator, that is to say, from the Tenth Degree of South Latitude to the Fifteenth Degree of North Latitude, and as far as the Thirtieth Degree of West Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Paris;

Second, All round the Island of Madagascar, to the Extent of Twenty Leagues from that Island:

Third, To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Cede;

Fourth, To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Porto Rico:

Fifth, To the same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil:

It was however understood, that a suspected Vessel, despoiled and begun to be chased by the Cruisers, while within the said Space of Twenty Leagues, might be searched by them beyond those Limits, if, without ever having lost sight of her, they should only succeed in coming up with her at a greater Distance from the Coasts;

And whereas by the Second Article it was agreed, that the Right of searching Merchant Vessels of either of the Two Nations in the Waters herein-before mentioned should be exercised only by Ships of War whose Commanders should have the Rank of Captain, or at least that of Lieutenant in the Navy: And whereas by the Third Article it was agreed, that the Number of Ships to be created with the said Right should be fixed each Year by a special Agreement, that the Number for each Nation need not be the same, but that in no Case should the Number of the Cruisers of the one Nation be more than Double the Number of the Cruisers of the other: And whereas by the Fourth Article it was agreed, that the Names of the Ships and of their Commanders should be communicated by each of the contracting Governments to the other, and Information should be respectively given of all Changes which might take place in the Cruisers: And whereas by the Fifth Article it was agreed, that Instructions should be drawn up and agreed upon in common by the Two Governments for the Cruisers of both Nations, which Cruisers should afford to each other mutual Assistance in all Circumstances in which it might be useful that they should act in concert, and that the Ships of War authorized to exercise the reciprocal Right of Search should be furnished with a special Authority from each of the Two Governments: And whereas by the Sixth Article it was agreed, that whenever a Cruiser should have chased and overtaken a Merchant Vessel, so liable to Suspicion, the Commanding Officer, before he should proceed to the Search, should exhibit to the Captain of the Merchant Vessel the special Orders which confer upon him, by Exception, the Right to visit her, and in case he should ascertain the Ship's Papers to be regular, and her Proceedings lawful, he should certify upon the Log Book of the Vessel that the Search took place only in virtue of the said Orders: and that, these Formalities having been completed, the Vessel should be at liberty to continue her Course: And whereas by the Seventh Article it was agreed, that the Vessel captured for being engaged in the Slave Trade, or as being suspected of being fitted out for that infamous Traffic, should, together with their Crews, be delivered over, without Delay, to the Jurisdiction of the Nation to which they should belong, and it was furthermore distinctly understood, that they should only be judged according to the Laws in force in those respective Countries: And whereas by the Eighth Article it was agreed, that in no Case should the Right of mutual Search be exercised upon the Ships of War of either Nation; that the Two Governments should agree on a particular Signal with which these Cruisers only should be furnished which were created with that Right, and which Signal should not be made known to any other Ship not employed upon that Service; and by the Ninth Article the High Contracting Parties to the said Treaty agreed to invest the other Maritime Powers to accede to it within as short a Period as possible; and by the Tenth Article it was agreed, that the then present Convention should be ratified, and the Ratifications of it should be exchanged within One Month, or sooner, if it were possible: And whereas the said Convention was ratified by and between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the French respectively, and such Ratifications were exchanged on the Sixteenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one: And whereas a Supplementary Convention was concluded between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the French for the more effectual Suppression of the Traffic in Slaves, and signed at Paris on the Twenty-second Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: And whereas by the First Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that whenever a Merchant Vessel navigating under the Flag of one of the said Two Nations should have been detained by the Cruisers of the other, duly authorized to that effect, conformably to the Provisions of the said Convention of the Thirtieth Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and also her Master, her Crew, her Cargo, and the Slaves who might be on board, should be carried up such Places as should here be appointed by the Contracting Parties respectively, in order that Proceedings might be there instituted respecting them, agreeably to the Laws of each Country, and that they should be delivered over to the Authorities appointed for that Purpose by the respective Governments: and that when the Commander of the Cruiser should not think proper to take upon himself the carrying in and delivering up the detained Vessel, he should not extract that Duty to an Officer below the Rank of Lieutenant in the Navy: And whereas by the Second Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that the Cruisers of the Two Nations authorized to exercise the Right of Visit and Detention, in execution of the Convention of the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, should, in all that relates to the Formalities of the Visit and of the Detention, as well as to the Measures to be taken for delivering up Vessels suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade in the respective Jurisdictions, conform strictly to the Instructions annexed to the said Supplementary Convention, and which should be considered as an integral Part thereof, and the said Two High Contracting Parties reserved to themselves the Power of making in those Instructions, by common Consent, any Modifications which Circumstances might render necessary: And whereas, in conformity with the Second Article of the said Supplementary Convention, it was agreed, that the Instructions next following should be annexed to the said Supplementary Convention, and considered as an integral Partion thereof: (that is to say.)

Secondly. If, in consequence of the Visit, the Officer commanding the Cruiser shall be of opinion that there are sufficient Grounds for believing that the Vessel is engaged in the Slave Trade, or has been fitted out for that Trade, and if he shall in consequence determine to detain her, and to have her delivered up to the respective Jurisdiction, he shall forthwith cause a List to be made out in Duplicate of all the Papers found on board, and he shall sign this List and the Duplicate, adding to his Name his Rank in the Navy, and the Name of the Vessel under his Command: He shall in like Manner make out and sign in Duplicate a Declaration, stating the Place and Time of the Detention, the Name of the Vessel, that of her Master, and those of the Persons composing her Crew, and also the Number and Condition of the Slaves found on board: This Declaration shall further contain an exact Description of the State of the Vessel and her Cargo.

Fifthly. All such French Vessels as shall be detained by the Cruisers of His Britannic Majesty so the African Station shall be carried and delivered up to the French Jurisdiction at Goree:

In delivering over these several Documents the Officer will make Attention of their Truth on Oath and in Writing.
- * Seventhly. If the Commander of a Cruiser of either of the High Contracting Parties, who shall be duly furnished with the aforesaid special Instructions, shall have reason to suspect that a Merchant Vessel sailing under Convoy or in Company with a Ship of War of the other Party is engaged in the Slave Trade, or has been fitted out for the Purpose of that Trade, he shall confine himself to the communicating his Suspicions to the Commander of the Convoy or of the Ship of War, and he shall leave it to the latter to proceed alone to a Visit of the suspected Vessel, and to deliver her up, if the Case require it, to the Jurisdiction of her own Country.

And whereas by the Seventh Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that no Compensation should in any Case be granted either to the Master or to the Owner or to any other Person interested in the Equipment or Lading of a Merchant Vessel in which any of the Particulars specified in the preceding Article should be found, even if the Tribunal should not pronounce any Condemnation, in consequence of her Detention: And whereas by the Eighth Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that when a Merchant Vessel of either of the Two Nations should have been visited and detained illegally, or without sufficient Cause of Suspicion, or when the Visit and Detention should have been attended with any Abuse or vexatious Act, the Commander of the Cruiser, or the Officer who should have boarded the said Vessel, or the Officer who should have been appointed to bring her on, as the Case might be, should be liable to Costs and Damages to the Master and to the Owners of the Vessel and Cargo; that those Costs and Damages might be awarded by the Tribunal before which the Proceedings against the detained Vessel, her Master, Crew, and Cargo, should have been instituted; and the Government of the Country to which the Officer who gave Occasion for such a Visit should belong should pay the Amount of the said Costs and Damages within the Period of One Year from the Date of the Award: And whereas by the Ninth Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that if in the Visit or Detention of a Merchant Vessel made in virtue of the Provisions of the said Convention of the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, or of the said present Convention, any Abuse or Vexation should have been committed, but the Vessel should not have been delivered over to the Jurisdiction of her own Nation, the Master of the Vessel should make a Declaration on Oath of the Abuse or Vexations of which he had to complain, and of the Costs and Damages to which he laid claim, before the competent Authorities in the first Part of his own Country at which he might arrive, or before the Consul Agent of his Nation, if the Vessel should proceed to a Foreign Port where there was such an Agent; that the Declaration should be confirmed by an Examination under Oath of the principal Persons of the Crew or Passengers who had witnessed the Visit or Detention, and One formal Declaration of the whole should be drawn up, and Two Copies thereof delivered to the Master, who should forward One of them to his own Government in support of his Claim for Costs and Damages; and that it was understood, that if any compulsory Circumstances should prevent the Master from making his Declaration, it might be made by the Owner or by any other Person interested in the Vessel or in her Cargo; that on the official Transmission of One Copy of the formal Declaration above mentioned through the Channel of the respective Embassies, the Government of the Country to which the Officer charged with Abuse or Vexations should belong should forthwith institute an Inquiry into the Matter, and if the Validity of the Complaint should be admitted, the said Government should cease to be paid to the Master or Owner, or to any other Person interested in the Vessel which should have been visited, or in her Cargo, the Amount of Costs and Damages which might be due to them: And whereas by the Tenth Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, and the Two Governments did engage reciprocally to communicate each to the other, free of Expence, and upon Application being made, Copies of all the Proceedings instituted and Judgments given relative to Vessels visited or detained in execution of the Provisions of the said Convention of the Thirtieth Day of November in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and of the said present Convention: And whereas by the Eleventh Article of the said Supplementary Convention it was agreed, that the Two Governments did agree to make the in addition:

An Act for the Abolition of Slavery throughout the British Colonies; for promoting the Industry of the emancipated Slaves; and for compensating the Persons hitherto entitled to the Services of such Slaves. [28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS divers Persons are held in Slavery within divers of His Majesty's Colonies, and it is just and expedient that all such Persons should be manumitted and set free, and that a reasonable Compensation should be made to the Persons hitherto entitled to the Services of such Slaves for the Loss which they will incur by being deprived of their Right to such Services; And whereas it is also expedient that Provision should be made for promoting the Industry and securing the good Conduct of the Persons so to be manumitted, for a limited Period after such their Manumission: And whereas it is necessary that the Laws now in force in the said several Colonies should forthwith be adapted to the new State and Relations of Society thence which will follow upon such general Manumission as aforesaid of the said Slaves; and that, in order to afford the necessary Time for such Adaptation of the said Laws, a short Interval should elapse before such Manumission should take effect; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four all Persons who in conformity with the Laws now in force in the said Colonies respectively shall as or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four have been duly registered as Slaves in any such Colony, and who on the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be actually within any such Colony, and who shall by such Registers appear to be on the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four of the full Age of Six Years or upwards, shall by Force and virtue of the Act, and without the previous Execution of any Indenture of Apprenticeship, or other Deed or Instrument for that Purpose, become and be apprenticed Labourers; provided that, for the Purposes aforesaid, every Slave engaged in his ordinary Occupation on the Sea shall be deemed and taken to be within the Colony to which such Slave shall belong.

II. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of the Apprenticeship of any such apprenticed Labourer such Person or Persons shall be entitled to the Services of such apprenticed Labourer as would for the Time being have been entitled to his or her Services as a Slave if this Act had not been made.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Slaves who may at any Time previous to the passing of this Act have been brought with the Consent of their Possessor, and all apprenticed Labourers who may hereafter with the like Consent be brought, into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall from and after the passing of this Act be absolutely and entirely free, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

IV. And whereas it is expedient that all such apprenticed Labourers should, for the Purpose herein after mentioned, be divided into Three distinct Classes, the First of such Classes consisting of predial apprenticed Labourers attached to the Soil, and comprising all Persons who in their State of Slavery were usually employed in Agriculture, or in the Manufacture of Colonial Produce or otherwise, upon Lands belonging to their Owners; the Second of such Classes consisting of predial apprenticed Labourers not attached to the Soil, and comprising all Persons who in their State of Slavery were usually employed in Agriculture, or in the Manufacture of Colonial Produce or otherwise, upon Lands not belonging to their Owners; and the Third of such Classes consisting of non-predial apprenticed Labourers, and comprising all apprenticed Labourers not included within either of the Two preceding Classes: be it therefore enacted, That such Divisions as aforesaid of the said apprenticed Labourers into such Classes as aforesaid shall be carried into effect in such Manner and Form and subject to such Rules and Regulations as shall for that Purpose be established under such Authority, and in and by such Act of Assembly, Ordinance, or Order in Council, as herein after mentioned: Provided always, that no Person of the Age of Twelve Years and upwards shall by or by virtue of any such Act of Assembly, Ordinance, or Order in Council, be included in either of the said Two Classes of predial apprenticed Labourers unless such Person shall for Twelve Calendar Months at the least next before the passing of this present Act have been habitually employed in Agriculture or in the Manufacture of Colonial Produce.

VI. And he it further enacted, That no Person who by virtue of this Act or of any such Act of Assembly, Ordinance, or Order in Council as aforesaid, shall become a non-prindal apprenticed Labourer, shall continue in such Apprenticeship beyond the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And he it further enacted, That if before any such Apprenticeship shall have expired the Person or Persons entitled for and during the Remainder of any such Term to the Services of such apprenticed Labourer shall be desirous to discharge him or her from such Apprenticeship, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons so to do by any Deed or Instrument to be by him, her, or them for that Purpose made and executed; which Deed or Instrument shall be in such Form, and shall be executed and recorded in such Manner and with such Substantives, as shall for that Purpose be prescribed under such Authority, and in and by such Acts of Assembly, Ordinance, or Orders in Council, as herein-after mentioned: Provided nevertheless, that if any Person so discharged from any such Apprenticeship by any such voluntary Act as aforesaid shall at that Time be of the Age of Fifty Years or upwards, or shall be then labouring under any such Disease or mental or bodily Infirmary as may render him or her incapable of earning his or her Subsistence, then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so discharging any such apprenticed Labourer as aforesaid shall continue to be liable to provide for the Support and Maintenance of such apprenticed Labourer during the remaining Term of such original Apprenticeship, as fully as if such apprenticed Labourer had not been discharged therefrom.

VIII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such apprenticed Labourer to purchase his or her Discharge from such Apprenticeship, even without the Consent, or in opposition, if necessary, to the Will of the Person or Persons entitled to his or her Services, upon Payment to such Person or Persons of the appraised Value of such Services; which Appraisalment shall be effected, and which Purchase Money shall be paid and applied, and which Discharge shall be given and executed, in such Manner and Form, and upon, under, and subject to such Conditions, as shall be prescribed under such Authority, and by such Acts of Assembly, Ordinance, or Orders in Council, as are herein-after mentioned.

 the House of Labour herein-before limited; nor to authorize any Court, Judge, or Justice of the Peace to punish any such apprenticed Labourer, being a Female, for any Offence by her committed, by whipping or beating her Person; and that every Enactment, Regulation, Provision, Rule, or Order for any such Purpose in any such Act, Ordinance, or Order in Council contained shall be and is hereby declared to be absolutely null and void and of no effect: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained doth or shall extend to exempt any apprenticed Labourer in any of the said Colonies from the Justice of the Peace, other than and except the Justice of the Peace holding such Special Commissions as aforesaid, to take cognizance of any Offence committed or alleged to have been committed by any such apprenticed Labourer, or by his or her Employer, in such their Relation to each other, or of the Breach, be the Protector of the Settlement during the Continuance of such Estate; or if in any other Case where there shall be submitting under a Settlement an Estate prior to an Estate Tail under the same Settlement, and such prior Estate shall be sufficient to qualify the Owner thereof to be Protector of the Settlement, and there shall happen at any Time to be no Protector of the Settlement as to the Lands in which the prior Estate shall be submitting, the said Court of Chancery shall, while there shall be no such Protector, and the prior Estate shall be submitting, be the Protector of the Settlement as to such Lands.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Time when any Person, tenant Tenant in Tail of Lands under a Settlement, but not entitled to the Remainder or Reversion in Fee immediately expectant on the Determination of his Estate Tail, shall be desirous of making under this Act a Disposition of the Lands entailed, there shall be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in every such Case the Consent of such Protector shall be requisite to enable such actual Tenant in Tail to dispose of the Lands entailed to the full Extent to which he is herein-before authorized to dispose of the same; but such actual Tenant in Tail may, without such Consent, make a Disposition under this Act of the Lands entailed, which shall be good against all Persons who, by Force of any Estate Tail which shall be vested in or might be claimed by, or which but for some previous Act or Default would have been vested in or might have been claimed by, the Person making the Disposition at the Time of his making the same, shall claim the Lands entailed.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where an Estate Tail shall have been converted into a Base Fee, in such Case, so long as there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail was created, the Consent of such Protector shall be requisite to enable the Person who would have been Tenant of the Estate Tail if the same had not been barred to exercise, as to the Lands in respect of which there shall be such Protector, the Power of Disposition herein-before contained.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when a Tenant in Tail of Lands under a Settlement shall have already created or shall hereafter create in such Lands, or any of them, a voidable Estate in Favour of a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and shall afterwards under this Act, by any Assurance other than a Lease not requiring Incumbent, make a Disposition of the Lands in which such voidable Estate shall be created, or any of them, such Disposition, whatever its Object may be, and whatever may be the Extent of the Estate intended to be thereby created, shall, if made by the Tenant in Tail with the Consent of the Protector (if any) of the Settlement, or by the Tenant in Tail alone, if there shall be no such Protector, have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate in the Lands thereby disposed of to its full Extent as against all Persons except those whose Rights are saved by this Act; but if at the Time of making the Disposition there shall be a Protector of the Settlement, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition, and the Tenant in Tail shall not without such Consent be capable under this Act of confirming the voidable Estate to its full Extent, then and in such Case such Disposition shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate so far as such Tenant in Tail would then be capable under the Act of confirming the same without such Consent: Provided always, that if such Disposition shall be made to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, who shall not have express Notice of the voidable Estate, then and in such Case the voidable Estate shall not be confirmed as against such Purchaser and the Persons claiming under him.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if a Base Fee in any Lands, and the Remainder or Reversion in Fee in the same Lands, shall at the Time of the passing of this Act, or on any Time afterwards, be united in the same Person, and at any Time after the passing of this Act there shall be no intermediate Estate between the Base Fee and the Remainder or Reversion, then and in such Case the Base Fee shall not merge, but shall be jure suo enlarged into as large an Estate as the Tenant in Tail, with the Consent of the Protector, if any, might have created by any Disposition under this Act if such Remainder or Reversion had been vested in any other Person.

L. And he it further enacted, That all the previous Clauses in this Act, so far as Circumstances and the different Tenures will admit, shall apply to Lands held by Copy of Court Roll, except that a Disposition of any such Lands under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof, whose Estate shall be an Estate at Law, shall be made by Surrender, and except that a Disposition of any such Lands under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof, whose Estate shall be merely an Estate in Equity, may be made either by Surrender or by a Deed as hereinafter provided, and except so far as such Clauses are otherwise altered or varied by the Clauses hereinafter enacted.

LI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That if the Consent of the Protector of a Settlement to the Disposition of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll by a Tenant in Tail thereof shall be given by Deed, such Deed shall, either at or before the Time when the Surrender shall be made by which the Disposition shall be effected, be executed by such Protector, and produced to the Lord of the Manor of which the Lands are Parcel, or to his Steward, or to the Deputy of such Steward; and the Consent of such Protector shall be void unless such Deed shall be so executed and produced; and on the Production of the Deed the Lord, or Steward or Deputy Steward, shall by Writing under his Hand, to be indorsed on the Deed, acknowledge that the same was produced within the Time limited, and shall cause such Deed, with the Indorsement thereon, to be entered on the Court Rolls of the Manor; and the Indorsement, purporting to be so signed, shall of itself be prima facie Evidence that the Deed was produced within the Time limited, and that the Person who signed the Indorsement was the Lord of the Manor, or his Steward, or the Deputy of such Steward; and after such Deed shall have been so entered the Lord of the Manor, or his Steward, or the Deputy of such Steward, shall indorse thereon a Memorandum signed by him, testifying the Entry of the same on the Court Rolls.

LII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That if the Consent of the Protector of a Settlement to the Disposition of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll by a Tenant in Tail thereof shall not be given by Deed, then and in such Case the Consent shall be given by the Protector to the Person taking the Surrender by which the Disposition shall be effected; and if the Surrender shall be made out of Court, it shall be expressly stated in the Memorandum of such Surrender that such Consent had been given, and such Memorandum shall be signed by the Protector, and the Lord of the Manor of which the Lands are Parcel, or his Steward, or the Deputy of such Steward, shall cause the Memorandum, with such Statement thereon as to the Consent, to be entered on the Court Rolls of the Manor; and such Memorandum shall be good Evidence of the Consent and of the Surrender therein stated to be made; and the Entry of the Memorandum on the Court Rolls, or a Copy of such Entry, shall be as available for the Purpose of Evidence as any other Entry on the Court Rolls, or a Copy thereof; but if the Surrender shall be made in Court, the Lord of the Manor, or his Steward, or the Deputy of such Steward, shall cause an Entry of such Surrender, containing a Statement that such Consent had been given, to be made on the Court Rolls; and the Entry of such Surrender on the Court Rolls, or a Copy of such Entry, shall be as available for the Purpose of Evidence as any other Entry on the Court Rolls, or a Copy thereof.

LIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That a Tenant in Tail of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll, whose Estate shall be merely an Estate in Equity, shall have full Power by Deed to dispose of such Lands under this Act in the same Manner in every respect as he could have done if they had been of Freehold Tenure; and all the previous Clauses in this Act shall, so far as Circumstances will admit, apply to the Lands in respect of which any such equitable Tenure in Tail shall vest benefit of this present Clause; and the Deed by which the Disposition shall be effected shall be entered on the Court Rolls of the Manor of which the Lands thereby disposed of may be Parcel; and if there shall be a Protector to consent to the Disposition, and such Protector shall give his Consent by a distinct Deed, the Consent shall be void unless the Deed of Consent be executed by the Protector either on or at any Time before the Day on which the Deed of Disposition shall be executed by the equitable Tenant in Tail; and such Deed of Consent shall be entered on the Court Rolls; and it shall be imperative on the Lord of the Manor, or his Steward, or the Deputy of such Steward, when required so to do, to enter such Deed or Deeds on the Court Rolls, and he shall indorse on each Deed so entered a Memorandum, signed by him, testifying the Entry of the same on the Court Rolls. Provided always, that every Deed by which Lands held by Copy of Court Roll shall be disposed of under this Clause, by an equitable Tenant in Tail thereof, shall be void against any Person claiming such Lands or any of them, for valuable Considerations under any subsequent Assurance duly entered on the Court Rolls of the Manor of which the Lands may be Parcel, unless the Deed of Disposition by the equitable Tenant in Tail be entered on the Court Rolls of such Manor before the subsequent Assurance shall have been entered.

As in the Deed of Consent and the Entry of it on the Court Rolls when the Protector of a Settlement of Copyholds consents by Deed to the Disposition of a Tenure in Tail.

As in the Consent of the Protector of a Settlement of Copyholds which may be given by Deed, and the producing of Evidence of the same on the Court Rolls.

Incliment not necessary as to Copyhold

Effect of the Bankrupt Act, 6 G. 4. c. 160 s. 25, as to its relation to Estates Tail, but not to estates of a Bankrupt under a Commission or Fiat issued on or before the 25th of Dec. 1825, in case reverse former Act.

The Commission in the Case of an actual Tenant in Tail issuing bankrupt after the 25th of Dec. 1825, by itself is held to dispose of the Lands of the Bankrupt to a Purchaser.

If a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee becomes bankrupt, and if there is no Protector, the Commissioners to dispose of the Lands of the Bankrupt.

As to the Consent of the Protector in case of Bankruptcy.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in no Case where any Disposition under this Act of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll, by a Tenant in Tail thereof, shall be effected by Surrender or by Deed, shall the Surrender or the Memorandum, or a Copy thereof, or the Deed of Disposition, or the Deed, if any, by which the Protector shall consent to the Disposition, require Incliment otherwise than by Entry on the Court Rolls.

LV. And be it further enacted, That after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three in such of the Acts passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled an Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, as empower the Commissioners named in any Commission of Bankrupt issued against a Tenant in Tail to make Sale of any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, situate either in England or Ireland, whereof such Bankrupt shall be seized of any Estate Tail in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, and whereof no Reversion or Remainder is in the Crown, the Gift or Prerogative of the Crown, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that such repeal shall not extend to the Lands, whatever the Tenant may be, of any Person adjudged a Bankrupt under any Commission of Bankrupt, or under any Fiat which, in pursuance of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, or of any former Act concerning Bankrupts, or of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act to establish a Court of Bankruptcy, hath been or shall be issued on or before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: Provided also, that such repeal shall not have the Effect of reviving in any respect the Acts repealed by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, or any of them.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any Fiat which after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three shall be issued in pursuance of the said Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, under which any Person shall be adjudged a Bankrupt who at the Time of issuing such Fiat, or at any Time afterwards, before he shall have obtained his Certificate, shall be an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, shall by Deed dispose of such Lands to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, for the Benefit of the Creditors of such actual Tenant in Tail, and shall execute by any such Disposition as large an Estate in the Lands disposed of as the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, could have done under this Act at the Time of such Disposition: Provided always, that if at the Time of the Disposition of such Lands, or any of them, by such Commissioner as aforesaid, there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate of such actual Tenant in Tail in the Lands disposed of by such Commissioner was created, and the Consent of such Protector would have been requisite to have enabled the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, to have disposed of such Lands in the full Extent to which, if there had been no such Protector, he could under this Act have disposed of the same, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition, then and in such Case the Estate created in such Lands, or any of them, by the Disposition of such Commissioner, shall be as large an Estate as the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, could at the Time of such Disposition have created under this Act in such Lands without the Consent of the Protector.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Fiat as aforesaid under which any Person shall be adjudged a Bankrupt who at the Time of issuing such Fiat, or at any Time afterwards before he shall have obtained his Certificate, shall be a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenure, shall by Deed dispose of such Lands to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, for the Benefit of the Creditors of the Person so created as aforesaid, provided at the Time of the Disposition there be no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail converted into the Base Fee was created: and by such Disposition the Base Fee shall be enlarged into as large an Estate as the same could at the Time of such Disposition have been enlarged into under this Act by the Person so entitled if he had not become bankrupt.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Fiat as aforesaid under which a Person being, or before obtaining his Certificate becoming, an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenure, shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, shall, if there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail of such actual Tenant in Tail, or the Base Fee converted into a Base Fee (as the Case may be), was created, stand in the Place of such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, so far as regards the Consent of such Protector; and the Disposition of such Lands, or any of them, by such Commissioner as aforesaid, if made with the Consent of such Protector, shall, whether such Commissioner may have made under this Act a prior Disposition of the same Lands without the Consent of such Protector or not, or whether a prior Sale or Conveyance of the same Lands shall have been made or not, under the said Acts of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth and the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, or either of them, or any Acts hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, have the same Effect as such Disposition would have had if such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, had not become bankrupt, and such Disposition had been made by him under this Act, with the Consent of such Protector; and all the previous Clauses in this Act, in regard to the Consent of the Protector to the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail of Lands not held by Copy of Court Roll, and in regard to the Time and Manner of giving such Consent, and in regard to the Incliment of the Deed of Consent, where such Deed shall be distinct from the Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit. Assurance Assurance by which the Disposition of the Commissioners shall be effected, shall, except so far as the same may be varied by the Clause next hereinafter contained, apply to every Consent that may be given by virtue of this present Clause.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That every Deed by which any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Act as aforesaid shall, under this Act, dispose of Lands not held by Copy of Court Roll, shall be void unless recorded in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof; and every Deed by which any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Act as aforesaid shall, under this Act, dispose of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll, shall be entered on the Court Rolls of the Manor of which the Lands may be Parcel; and if there shall be a Protector who shall consent to the Disposition of such Lands held by Copy of Court Roll, and he shall give his Consent by a distinct Deed, the Consent shall be void unless the Deed of Consent be countersigned by the Protector either on or at any Time before the Day on which the Deed of Disposition shall be executed by the Commissioner; and both Deed of Consent shall be entered on the Court Rolls; and it shall be imperative on the Lord of every Manor of which any Lands disposed of under this Act by any such Commissioner as aforesaid may be Parcel, or the Steward of such Lord, or the Deputy of such Steward, so enter on the Court Rolls of the Manor every Deed required by this present Clause to be entered on the Court Rolls, and he shall indorse on every Deed so entered a Memorandum, signed by him, testifying the Entry of the same on the Court Rolls.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Act as aforesaid shall, under this Act, dispose of any Lands of any Tenant of which the Bankrupt shall be actual Tenant in Tail, and in consequence of there being a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate of such actual Tenant in Tail was created, and of his not giving his Consent, only a Base Fee shall by such Disposition be created in such Lands, and if at any Time afterwards during the Continuance of the Base Fee there shall come to be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in such Case, and immediately thereupon, such Base Fee shall be enlarged into the same Estate into which the same could have been enlarged under this Act if at the Time of the Disposition by such Commissioner as aforesaid there had been no such Protector.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That if a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenant shall be adjudged a Bankrupt at the Time when there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail converted into the Base Fee was created, and if such Lands shall be sold or conveyed under the said Acts of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth and the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, or either of them, or any other Acts hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, and if at any Time afterwards during the Continuance of the Base Fee in such Lands there shall come to be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in such Case, and immediately thereupon, the Base Fee in such Lands shall be enlarged into the same Estate into which the same could have been enlarged under this Act if at the Time of the Adjudication of such Bankruptcy there had been no such Protector, and the Commissioner acting in the Execution of the Act under which the Tenant in Tail so entitled shall have been adjudged a Bankrupt had disposed of such Lands under this Act.

LXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenant, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenant, shall have already created or shall hereafter create in such Lands, or any of them, a voidable Estate in favour of a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, shall be adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Act as aforesaid, and the Commissioner acting in the Execution of such Act shall make any Disposition under this Act of the Lands in which such voidable Estate shall be created, or any of them, then and in such Case, if there shall be no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail of the actual Tenant in Tail, or the Estate Tail converted into a Base Fee, as the Case may be, was created, or being such Protector he shall consent to the Disposition by such Commissioner as aforesaid, whether such Commissioner may have made under this Act a previous Disposition of such Lands or not, or whether a prior Sale or Conveyance of the same Lands shall have been made or not under the said Acts of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth and the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, or either of them, or any other Acts hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, the Disposition by such Commissioner shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate in the Lands thereby disposed of to its full Extent as against all Persons except those whose Rights are saved by this Act; and if at the Time of the Disposition by such Commissioner, in the Case of an actual Tenant in Tail, there shall be a Protector, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition by such Commissioner, and such actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not been adjudged a Bankrupt, would not without such Consent have been capable under this Act of confirming the voidable Estate to its full Extent, then and in such Case such Disposition shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate so far as such actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not been adjudged a Bankrupt, could at the Time of such Disposition have been capable under this Act of confirming the same without such Consent; and if on any Time after the Disposition of such Lands by such Commissioner, and while only a Base Fee shall be subsisting in such Lands, there shall come to be a Protector of such Settlement, and such Protector shall not have consented to the Disposition by such Commissioner, then and in such Case such voidable Estate, so far as the same may not have been previously confirmed, shall be confirmed to its full Extent as against all Persons except those whose Rights are saved by this Act; Provided always, that if the Disposition by any such Com-

LXIII. And he it further enacted, That all Acts and Deeds done and executed by a Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, who shall be adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Stat as aforesaid, and which shall affect such Lands or any of them, and which, if he had been seized of or entitled to such Lands in Fee Simple absolute, would have been void against the Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate, and all Persons claiming under them, shall be void against any Disposition which may be made of such Lands under this Act by such Commissioner as aforesaid.

LXIV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That, subject and without Prejudice to the Powers of Disposition given by this Act to the Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid under which a Person being, or before obtaining his Certificate becoming, an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenure shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, and also subject and without Prejudice to the Estate in such Lands which may be vested in the Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate, and also subject and without Prejudice to the Rights of all Persons claiming under the said Assignees in respect of such Lands or any of them, such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid shall have the same Powers of Disposition under this Act in regard to such Lands as he would have had if he had not become bankrupt.

LXV. And he it further enacted, That any Disposition under this Act of Lands of any Tenure by any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid under which a Person being, or before obtaining his Certificate becoming, an actual Tenant in Tail of such Lands, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in such Lands shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, shall, although the Bankrupt be dead at the Time of the Disposition, be in the following Cases as valid and effectual as the same could have been, and have the same Operation under this Act as the same would have had, if the Bankrupt were alive; (that is to say,) in case at the Time of the Bankrupt's Decease there shall be no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail of the actual Tenant in Tail, or the Estate Tail converted into a Base Fee, as the Case may be, was created, or in case the Bankrupt had been an actual Tenant in Tail of such Lands, and there shall at the Time of the Disposition be any Issue inheritable to the Estate Tail of the Bankrupt in such Lands, and either no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail was created, or a Protector of such Settlement who, in the Manner required by this Act, shall consent to the Disposition, or a Protector of such Settlement who shall not consent to the Disposition; or in case the Bankrupt had been a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in such Lands, and there shall at the Time of the Disposition be any Issue who if the Base Fee had not been created would have been actual Tenant in Tail of such Lands, and either no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail converted into a Base Fee was created, or a Protector of such Settlement who, in the Manner required by this Act, shall consent to the Disposition.

LXVI. And he it further enacted, That every Disposition which under this Act may be made by any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid of Lands held by Copy of Court Roll shall, in every Case in which the Estate of the Bankrupt in such Lands shall not be merely an Estate in Equity, operate in the same Manner as if such Lands had, for the same Estate which shall have been acquired by the Disposition by such Commissioner as aforesaid, been duly surrendered into the Hands of the Lord of the Manor of which they may be Parcel, to the Use of the Person to whom the same shall have been disposed of by such Commissioner; and the Person to whom the Lands shall have been so disposed of by such Commissioner may there be admitted Tenant of such Lands, to hold the same by the ancient Uses, Customs, and Services, in the same Manner as if such Lands had been daily surrendered to his Use into the Hands of the Lord of the Manor of which such Lands may be Parcel, and shall, upon being admitted Tenant of such Lands, to hold the same as aforesaid, pay the Fines, Fees, and other Dues which could have been lawfully demanded upon such Admittance if such Lands had, for the same Estate which shall have been acquired by the Disposition by such Commissioner as aforesaid, passed by Surrender into the Hands of the Lord, to the Use of the Person so admitted.

LXVII. And he it further enacted, That the Rents and Profits of any Lands of which any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid hath Power to make Disposition under this Act shall in the meantime and until such Disposition shall be made, or until it shall be ascertained that such Disposition shall not be required for the Benefit of the Creditors of the Person adjudged bankrupt under the Stat, be received by the Assignees of the Estate of the Bankrupt, for the Benefit of the Creditors; and the Assignees may proceed by Action of Debt for the Recovery of such Rents and Profits, or may detain for the same upon the Lands subject to the Payment thereof, and as soon any Action of Treason shall be brought for taking any such Oath as may plead thereto the General Issue, and give this Act or any special Matter in Evidence, and also, in case any such Evidence shall be replied, shall have Power to avow or make cognizance generally in such Manner and Form as any Landlord may now do by virtue of the Statute made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more effectual covering the Payment of Rents and preventing Frauds by Tenants, or by any other Law or Statute now in force or hereafter to be made for the more effectual recovering of Rents in arrears; and such Assignees, and their Bailiffs, Agents, and Servants, shall also have all such and the same Remedies, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages of pleading, avowing, and making cognizance, and be entitled to the same Costs and Damages, and the same Remedies for the Recovery thereof, as Landlords, their Bailiffs, Agents, and Servants, are now or hereafter may be by Law refused to have when Rent is in arrear; and such Assignees shall also have the same Power and Authority of enforcing the Performance of all Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements in respect of the Lands of which such Commissioners as aforesaid hold the Power of Disposition under this Act, and in respect of the Rents and Profits thereof, and of Entry into and upon the same Lands for the Nonobservance of any such Covenant, Condition, and Agreement, and of expelling and removing therefrom the Tenants or other Occupiers thereof, and thereby determining and putting an End to the Estate of the Persons who shall not have observed such Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements, as the Bankrupt would have had in case he had not been adjudged a Bankrupt. Provided always, that this Clause shall apply to all Lands held by Copy Court Roll, but shall only apply to those Lands of any other Tenure which any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid may have Power to dispose of under this Act after the Bankrupt's Decree.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions in this Act contained for the Benefit of the Creditors of Persons who under such Stat as aforesaid shall be adjudged Bankrupts after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and for the Confirmation in consequence of Bankruptcy of voidable Estates created by them, shall extend and apply to the Lands of any Tenure in Ireland of such Persons as fully and effectually as if this Act had throughout extended to Lands of any Tenure in Ireland, saving always the Rights of the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to any Reversion or Remainder in the Crown in Lands in Ireland.

LXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Bankruptcy, every Deed of Disposition under this Act of Lands in Ireland by any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Stat as aforesaid, and also every Deed by which the Proprietor of a Settlement of Lands in Ireland shall consent, shall be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof, and not in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in England.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for repeating an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled 'An Act for the Relief of Persons' entitled as Entailed Estates to be purchased with Fruit Money, and for making further Provision in law thereof', shall be and the same is hereby repealed, except as to such Proceedings under the Act hereby repealed as shall have been commenced before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and which may be continued under the Authority and according to the Provisions of the Act hereby repealed: Provided always, that the Act repealed by the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth shall not be revived.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That Lands to be sold, whether Freehold or Leasehold, or of any other Tenure, where the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled, so that any Person, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, and also Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled, as that any Person, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, shall for all the Purposes of this Act be treated as the Lands to be purchased, and be considered subject to the same Estates as the Lands to be purchased would, if purchased, have been actually subject to, and all the previous Clauses in this Act, so far as Circumstances will admit, shall, in the Case of the Lands to be sold as aforesaid being either Freehold or Leasehold, or of any other Tenure, except Copy Court Roll, apply to such Lands in the same Manner as if the Lands to be purchased with the Money to arise from the Sale thereof were directed to be Freehold, and were actually purchased and settled; and shall, in the Case of the Lands to be sold as aforesaid being held by Copy Court Roll, apply to such Lands in the same Manner as if the Lands to be purchased with the Money to arise from the Sale thereof were directed to be Copyhold, and were actually purchased and settled; and shall, in the Case of Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be so settled as aforesaid, apply to such Money in the same Manner as if such Money were directed to be laid out in the Purchase of Freehold Lands, and such Lands were actually purchased and settled; and except that in every Case where under this Clause a Disposition shall be to be made of Leasehold Lands for Years absolute or determinable, or circumstances as aforesaid, or of Money so circumstanced as aforesaid, such Leasehold Lands or Money shall, as to the Person to whose Use or for whose Benefit the Disposition is to be made, be treated as Personal Estate, and except in case of Bankruptcy, the Assurance by which the Disposition of such Leasehold Lands or Money shall be effected shall be an Assurance by Deed, which shall have no Operation under this Act unless enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof; and in every Case of Bankruptcy the Disposition of such Leasehold Lands or Money shall be made by the Commissioner, and completed by Inrollment in the same Manner as heretofore required in regard to Lands not held by Copy Court Roll.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That so far as regards any Person adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Stat as aforesaid, the Provisions of the Clause lastly herein-before contained shall, for the Benefit of the Creditors of the Bankrupt, apply to Lands in Ireland to be sold, whether Freehold or Leasehold, or of any other Tenure, where the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled as that the Bankrupt, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, and also in Money under the Control of any Court of Equity in some of other late Bankrupts' Death. D. U. 2. 4. 18.

All the Provisions of the Act in regard to Bankrupts shall apply to those Lands in Ireland.

An Act to provide for the Appointment and Election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return or contribute to return Members to Parliament and are not Royal Burghs. [18th August 1833.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the Representation of the People in Scotland, the Right of sending or contributing to send Members to Parliament was conferred on divers Burghs and Towns in Scotland which were not Royal Burghs. And whereas there are in some of those Burghs and Towns no proper Magistraty or Councils; and the Constitution of such Magistraties and Councils, and the Mode of electing the same, when they do exist in such Burghs or Towns, is defective, and has given Occasion to much Inconvenience: For Remedy whereof it is expedient that Provision be now made for the said Appointment and Election of such Magistrates and Councils in all such Burghs; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Tuesday in November next there shall be in each of the several Burghs and Towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock the Number of Sixteen Councillors, whereof One shall be Provost, Four shall be Bailies, and One a Treasurer; and in each of the several Burghs and Towns of Falkirk, Hamilton, Peterhead, Musselburgh, and Arbroath there shall be the Number of Twelve Councillors, whereof One shall be Provost, and Three Bailies, and One a Treasurer, and in each of the several Burghs or Towns of Part Glougas, Greenway, and Portobello there shall be the Number of Nine Councillors, whereof One shall be Provost, and Two Bailies; and in the Burgh of Oban there shall be the Number of Six Councillors, whereof Two shall be Bailies.

II. And be it enacted, That the Right of electing the Councillors in each of the said Burghs and Towns shall be in all the Persons who are qualified to vote for a Member of Parliament for such Burgh or Town, whose Names shall be on the Register directed to be kept by the said recited Act, and which shall have been completed in Terms thereof up to the Period thereby directed next previous to the Time hereinafter appointed for the Election of such Councillors; and such Register so completed from Time to Time shall be and be deemed to be the Register of Electors of the Councillors for such Burghs or Towns respectively.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Burghs or Towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock shall be divided into Wards or Districts, which, together with the Number of Councillors to be chosen by each such Ward or District, shall be fixed and ascertained by the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the Condition of the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland by a Commission dated on the Fifteenth Day of July in this present Year; and such Commissioners shall have regard to it being the Purpose and Meaning of this Act that the Number of Wards shall be such that each Ward shall, at the first Election to be made under this Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the Number of Three Councillors, and at the subsequent annual Elections in each succeeding Year the Number of One Councillor: and the said Commissioners shall, upon each Division being made and completed, report the same to His Majesty's Privy Council, who shall cause such Report to be published by Royal Proclamation in the Gazette; and the Number and Limits of such Districts and the Number of Councillors to be elected by each such District, being as fixed, reported, and published, shall be held and taken to be a Part of the Act, in the same Manner and to the same Effect as if the same were particularly set forth and enacted therein.

IV. And be it enacted, That upon the First Tuesday in November next the Electors qualified and entered in the said Register shall, in each of the said Burghs or Towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock, respectively choose from among such of their own Number as either reside within the Boundaries assigned to such Burgh or Town by the said recited Act, or as carry on Business personally therein, the Councils of the said respective Burghs or Towns in manner following; that is to say, the qualified Electors of each District whose Names shall be in the said Register shall at some Place or Places to be appointed for each such Ward or District, of which Intimation shall be made by Notice affixed on the Church Doors of the several Parishes of such Burgh Ten Days at least previous to each Election, proceed to elect from and among the Persons contained in the said Register such a Number of Councillors for such Burgh or Town, being either resident or personally carrying on Business within such Burgh or Town respectively, as herein-before provided, as shall by the Report of the Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, and the Proclamation thereof aforesaid, have been fixed and ascertained as the Number of Councillors to be elected in each such Ward, by open Poll, to be taken at the Polling Place or Polling Places appointed for each Ward, in the Presence of the Provost or Chief or Senior Magistrate capable of attending to such Burgh or Town, or of a legal Substitute to be appointed by law, such Assessor being of the Profession of the Law, and being always an Advocate, or a Writer to the Signet, or a Solicitor in the Supreme or Inferior Courts, of not less than Three Years standing respectively, to officiate and preside at the Election in each such Ward or District; and the Town Clerks of such Burghs or Towns, or the Provost who may be appointed by the Chief Magistrate thereof to officiate as Poll Clerks in the several Wards thereof, which Persons such Provost or Chief Magistrate is hereby authorized to appoint, shall each have with him a certified Copy of that Part of the aforesaid Register which contains the Names of the Voters qualified in respect of Property situate in each such District, according to which the Names shall be called, and shall be called, and shall be

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Management and Improvement of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases, of the Land Revenue of the Crown within the Shores of the Enchiquin in England; and of the Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland; and for extending certain Provisions relating to the same to the Isles of Man and Alderney, it was enacted, that all the Land Revenues whatsoever (Advowsons of Churches and Vicarages only excepted) which belonged to His Majesty within the City or Survey of the County of Enchiquin in England or Wales, in Ireland, in the Isle of Man and its Dependencies, and the Isle of Alderney, should be under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of their Successors; and it was thereby further enacted, that the annual Income of all the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in which that Act related, including Fees on Leases, and all other Sums received in respect of such Leases, or otherwise for or in respect of the said Possessions and Land Revenues (except from Sales or Exchanges), should be applied in manner following; that is to say, in the first place, in Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses attending the Management of the said Possessions and Land Revenues; in the next place, in the Payment and Discharge of any annual Sum or Sum of Money, or any Pensions, then already charged or to be charged thereon respectively, and in the Payment of any other Principal Sum, and the Interest of any Principal Sum or Sums of Money which was then already or might be thereafter charged upon the said Possessions and Land Revenues; in the next place, so much of the Monies to arise from the said annual Income as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being should from Time to Time think proper should be applied towards the Payment and Discharge of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Repairs, Alterations, and Improvements of Buckingham House, and the Bishops' Office, and Grounds appertaining and belonging thereto, provided that the Sum to be so applied under the foregoing Act to such Repairs, Alterations, and Improvements should not exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, over and above the Sum of Three hundred and forty-six thousand Pounds which had been then already applied thereto previous to the passing of the now recited Act; and subject to the Application aforesaid, the said annual Income should during the Life of His then present Majesty be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and from and after the Death of His then present Majesty should be payable and paid to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, that the Payment of the said Office of and Revenues in England and Ireland respectively therein mentioned, which at the Time of the Decree of His late Majesty King George the Fourth made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and also the small Branches of the Hereditary Revenues, and the Produce of the Hereditary Crown Revenues, therein mentioned, which had accrued since the Decree of His said late Majesty, and which should not have been applied and distributed in the Payment of any Charge thereupon respectively, or which should accrue during the Life of His present Majesty, should be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and after the Decree of His present Majesty of the said Hereditary Revenues, including the Duties on Beer, Ale, and Cider, should be payable and paid to His Heirs and Successors: And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending the Office of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings with the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and for other Purposes relating to the said Revenues, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, to appoint, in the Place of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, any Persons, not exceeding Three in Number, to be Commissioners for performing the Duties and executing the Powers then performed and exercisable by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and the Duties and Powers then performed and exercisable by the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and that the Person so first appointed and their Successors should be called "The Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings;" and the said Commissioners were by the said Act empowered to exercise and carry into effect all the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, either expressly or by reference to any other Acts: And whereas the Repairs, Alterations, and Improvements of Buckingham Palace, and the Buildings, Offices, and Grounds appertaining thereto, in which the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds was by the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth authorized and directed to be laid out and expended, are nearly completed and finished; and in order to render the said Palace a suitable Residence for His Majesty, it is expedient that a certain Portion of the Produce owing to His Majesty by the Heirs of Messengers, Lords, and other Hereditaments in England and Ireland, and by the Feins on Leases of the same, or any of them, now forming Part of the Hereditary Revenues belonging to His Majesty in right of His Crown, under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, by virtue of the said recited Acts of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty and the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, should be made applicable, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to the Purpose of defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of completing and perfecting the Finishings of the said Palace, and of providing Fixtures, Furniture, and Decorations necessary and requisite for the same: And it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, from Time to Time to direct and authorize the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to pay and apply, out of the Produce of the said Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown now under their Care and Management as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall think necessary and expedient, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Fifty-five thousand Pounds, towards the Payment and Discharge of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of such Finishings, Fixtures, Furnitures, and Decorations.

It. And he it further enacted, That the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money herein-before authorized to be made shall be prior to and take precedence of the Payment or Appropriation of any Sum or Sums of Money arising from the said Land Revenues for the Purposes of the Consolidated Fund; but that the said Land Revenues shall nevertheless remain subject and liable to the Costs and Charges attending the Management thereof, and the Payment or Discharge of any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Penances, which may be now already charged thereon, or to the Payment whereof the same now are or may hereafter become liable under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Land Revenues; any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to or concerning the said Revenues to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

A Sum not exceeding 55,000*l*. to be paid out of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown for Expenses of Buildings, Fixtures, and Furniture of Buckingham Palace.

strued or deemed to repeal, alter, or affect an Act made in the First Session of the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Henry the Eighth, intitled An Act that Consanguinity or Affinity, being not within the Fifth Degree shall be an original Challenge; or an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King William the Third, intitled An Act for Relief of In-

XXIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That it is and shall be lawful for His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer in Ireland respectively, upon Motion made on behalf of the King, or upon the Motion of any Prosecutor, Relator, Plaintiff, or Demandant, or of any Defendant or Tenant, in any Case whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, or on any penal Statute, excepting only Indulgences for Treason or Felony depending in any of the said Courts, and the said Courts and Judges respectively are hereby authorized in any of the Cases before mentioned to order and appoint a Special Jury to be struck before the proper Officer of each respective Court, for the Trial of any Issue joined in any of the said Cases and table by a Jury, in such Manner as hereinafter directed for the striking of Special Juries; and every Jury so struck shall be the Jury returned for the Trial of such Issue.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff of every County, City, and Town respectively, or his Under Sheriff, shall, within Ten Days from the Delivery of the Juries Book for the Current Year to either of them, take from such Book the Names of all such Persons as are Sons of Peers, and of all Baronets, Knights, Magistrates, and of Persons who have served or been returned to serve the Office of Sheriff or Grand Juror at the Assizes, and of all Bankers and wholesale Merchants who do not exercise retail Trade, and of all Trades who are possessed of Personal Property of the Value of Five thousand Pounds, and of the eldest Sons of such Persons respectively, and if such Descriptions of Persons shall not be so numerous as to furnish a competent Number of Persons out of whom a Special Jury may be formed, as herein-after provided, then a sufficient Number of other Persons whose Names are contained in the Juries Book, Consideration being had of the Rank and Property of such Persons, and shall respectively cause the same to be fairly and truly copied out in alphabetical Order, together with the respective Places of Abode and Additions of each Man in a separate List, to be subjoined to the Juries Book, which List shall be called "The Special Juries List," and shall prefix to every Name in such List its proper Number, beginning the Numbers from the first Name, and commencing them in a regular arithmetical Series down to the last Name, and shall cause the said several Numbers to be written upon distinct Pieces of Parchment or Card, being all, as nearly as may be, of equal size, and, after all the said Numbers shall have been so written, shall put the same together in a separate Drawer or Box, and shall there safely keep the same, to be used for the Purpose herein-after mentioned.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any of the Courts or Judges above mentioned shall order a Special Jury to be struck before the proper Officer of such Court, such Officer shall appoint a Time and Place for the Nominations of such Special Jury; and a Copy of the Rule of Court and of such Officer's Appointment shall be served on the Sheriff or Under Sheriff of the County, City, or Town in which the Trial is to be had, and also on all the Parties who have usually been served with the same respectively in the accustomed Manner; and the said Officer, at the Time and Place appointed, being attended by such Sheriff or Under Sheriff, or his Agent, who are hereby respectively required to bring with them the Juries Book and such Special Juries List, or Two Copies thereof signed by such Sheriff or Under Sheriff, and all the Numbers to write on distinct Pieces of Parchment or Card as aforesaid, shall, in the Presence of all the Parties in any of the Cases aforesaid, and of their Attorneys, if they respectively choose to attend, or if the said Parties or their Attorneys, all or any of them, do not attend, then in their Absence, put all the said Numbers into a Box, to be by him provided for that Purpose, and after having shaken them together shall draw out of the said Box Forty-eight of the said Numbers, one after another, and shall, as each Number is drawn, refer to the corresponding Number in the Special Juries List, and read aloud the Name designated by such Number; and if at the Time of so reading any Name either Party or his Attorney shall object that the Man whose Name shall have been so referred to is in any Manner incapacitated from serving on the said Jury, and shall also then and there prove the same to the Satisfaction of the said Officer, such Name shall be set aside, and the said Officer shall instead thereof draw out of the said Box another Number, and shall in like Manner refer to the corresponding Number in the said List, and read aloud the Name designated thereby, which Name may be in like Manner set aside, and other Numbers and Names shall in every such Case be resorted to, according to the Mode of proceeding herebefore described for the Purpose of supplying Names in the Places of those set aside, until the whole Number of Forty-eight Names not liable to be set aside shall be completed; and if in any Case it shall so happen that the whole Number of Forty-eight Names cannot be obtained from the Special Juries List, then and in that Case the said Officer shall fairly and indifferently take, according to the Mode of Nominations herebefore pursued in nominating Special Juries, such a Number of Names from the General Juries List as shall be required to make up the full Number of Forty-eight Names, all and every of which Forty-eight Names shall in such Case be equally deemed and taken to be those of Special Juries; and the said Officer shall afterwards make out for each Party a List of the Forty-eight Names, in the Order in which they shall have been drawn as aforesaid, together with their respective Places of Abode and Additions, and after having made out such List shall return all the Numbers so drawn out, together with all the Numbers remaining undrawn, to such Sheriff or Under Sheriff, or his Agent, to be by such Sheriff or Under Sheriff safely and securely kept for future Use; and all the subsequent Proceedings for Printed and published by the University of Southampton Press. Digitisation Unit, reducing referring the said List of Forty-eight, and all other Matters whatsoever relating to Special Juries, shall remain and continue in Force in hereinafter, except where the same or any Part thereof is expressly altered by this Act; and all the Fees heretofore legally payable on the striking of Special Juries shall continue to be paid as the accustomed Manner.

XXVI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed so prevent the Person or any Cause, or their Attorneys, from consenting to have a Special Jury nominated according to the Mole used and accustomed before the passing of this Act; and upon a Consent to that Effect, signed by each Party or his Attorneys, being communicated to the proper Officer, he is lawfully authorized and required to nominate a Special Jury for the Trial of every such Cause according to the Mole used and accustomed before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so prevent the same Special Jury, however nominated, from trying any Number of Causes, so as the Parties in every such Cause, or their Attorneys, shall have signified their Assent in Writing to the Nomination of such Special Jury for the Trial of their respective Causes, or shall consent thereto in open Court: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, upon the Application of any Man who shall have served upon One Special Jury or more at any Assizes or Sessions of the Peace, to discharge such Man from serving upon any other Special Jury during the same Assizes or Sessions of the Peace.

XXVII. And he it further enacted, That the Person or Party who shall apply for a Special Jury shall pay the Fees for striking such Jury, and all the Expenses occasioned by the Trial of the Cause by the same, and shall not have any further or other Allowance for the same, upon Termination of Cause, than such Person or Party would be entitled unto in case the Cause had been tried by a Common Jury, unless the Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall immediately after the Trial certify under his Hand upon the Back of the Record that the same was a Cause proper to be tried by a Special Jury.

XXVIII. And he it further enacted, That where a full Jury shall not appear before any Court of Assize or Mid Peace in any Criminal Prosecution properly triable in such Court, or in any Suit or Action, or where, after Appearance of a full Jury, by Challenge of any of the Parties the Jury is likely to remain untried for Default of Jurors, every such Court, upon Request made for the King by any one therein authorized or assigned by the Court in Cases of Criminal Prosecutions as aforesaid, or on Request made by the Parties, Plaintiff or Defendant, or Tenant, or their respective Attorneys, in any Action or Suit, whether popular or private, shall command the Sheriff or other Minister to whom the making of the Return shall belong to name and appoint, as often as Need shall require, Twelve other able Men of the County, City, or Town, then present, and the Sheriff or other Minister aforesaid shall at each Command of the Court return Twelve such Men duly qualified, who shall be present or can be found to serve as such Jury, and shall add and annex their Names to the former Panel; provided that where a Special Jury shall have been struck for the Trial of any Issue, the Taleman shall be such as shall be impanelled upon the Common Jury Panel to serve at the same Court, if a sufficient Number of such Men can be found; and the Names of the Persons so to be named, with their Additions and Places of Abode, shall be written on several distinct Pieces of Parchment or Cards, being all of an equal Size, and shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Judge before whom such Issue is to be tried by the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the returning of such Jury shall belong, and shall, by the Direction and Care of such Clerk, be rolled up all as near or may be in the same Manner, and put together in a Box or Basket and shaken together, and some indifferent Persons, by Direction of the Court, in open Court, shall draw out such Pieces of Parchment or Card one after another, until a Number shall appear which shall be sufficient with those of the original Panel who appear, to make up the Number of Twelve, who shall be the Jury to try the said Issue; and the King, by any one so authorized or assigned as aforesaid, and all and every the Parties aforesaid, shall and may in each of the Cases aforesaid respectively have their respective Challenges to the Jurors so added and assessed; and the Court shall proceed to the Trial of every such Issue, with those Jurors who were before impanelled, together with the Taleman so newly added and assessed, as if all the said Jurors had been returned upon the Writ or Precept awarded to try the Issue.

XXIX. And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for reviving, continuing, and extending several temporary Statutes, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is amongst other things enacted, that no Issue shall be tried by a Jury of any City, in any Action or Suit concerning any Tolls, Duties, or Customs claimed by the Corporation of such City, but that every such Issue shall be tried by a Jury of an indifferent County, to be appointed by the Court in which such Action or Suit shall depend: And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Sixth Year of His late Majesty's Kings, intituled An Act for the Amendment of the Law with respect to Special Juries, and to Trials in Counties of Cities and Towns and Towns Corporate in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that in every Action, whether the same be transitory or local, which shall be prosecuted or depending in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, and in every Indictment returned into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin by a Writ of Certiorari, and in every Information filed by His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in Ireland, or by Leave of the Court of King's Bench in Ireland, and in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall plead to or traverse any of the Facts contained in the Return to any Writ of Mandamus in Ireland, if the Venue in such Action, Indictment, or Information be laid in any County of a City, County of a Town, or Town Corporate within Ireland, or if such Writ of Mandamus be directed to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies as Corporation, in England or Scotland.

Any Person may have a Special Jury which according to the ancient Mole.

Such Jury may try any Number of Causes. Courts may discharge a Juror.

And, if it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Action, Indictment, Information, or other Proceeding shall be depending, at the Prayer and Instance of any Prosecutor or Plaintiff or of any Defendant, to direct the Issue or Issues joined in such Action, Indictment, Information, or Proceeding to be tried by a Jury of the County next adjoining to such County of a City, County of a Town, or Town Corporate, and to award proper Writs of Venue or Distringas accordingly, if the said Court shall think fit and proper so to do: And whereas it may be difficult, in Cases in which Compositions may be taken, to procure a Jury of suitable Persons or adjoining Counties, who shall not be of Kindred or Affinity in some collateral Degree with some Member of such Corporation, or such Degree of Kindred or Affinity may be so remote as to be unknown to the Sheriff or other Officers who shall return the Jury to try such Cases: And whereas it is expedient that Persons returned as any such Jury should not be liable to be challenged by either Plaintiff or Defendant for any remote Degree of collateral Kindred or Affinity with any Member of such Corporation: be it therefore enacted, That in any Action or Suit instituted by or against any Corporate Body in Ireland, it shall not be deemed, taken, allowed, or admitted as a good Cause or Ground of Challenge of any Person returned as a Jury to try the Issue in such Action or Suit, that such Person so challenged is of collateral Kindred or Affinity with any Member of such Corporate Body, unless such Person shall be either the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of some Member of such Corporate Body, or the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of the Wife of some Member of such Corporate Body, or unless some Member of such Corporate Body shall be the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of the Wife of such Person as to be challenged: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive any Plaintiff or Defendant in any such Action or Suit of any Right of Challenge of any Person returned on any such Jury for any other Cause for which any such Juror might have been challenged before the passing of this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That whenever an Order shall be made in any such Action or Suit for a Special Jury to be struck. It shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer of the Court in which such Action or Suit shall be depending, after he shall in the Manner by this Act directed have made out a List of Forty-eight Persons, at the Instance of the Plaintiff or Plaintiff, or Defendant or Defendants, in such Action or Suit, or allow to the Party so applying each Name as shall appear to such Officer to be reasonable for the Purpose of making Inquiry respecting the several Persons named in such List, and if it shall be made appear satisfactorily to such Officer that any of the Persons named in such List shall be the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of any Member of such Corporate Body, or the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of the Wife of any Member of such Corporate Body, or that any Member of such Corporate Body shall be the Brother, Uncle, Nephew, or First Cousin of the Wife of any Person named in such List, then such Officer shall strike out of such List the Name or Names of any and every such Person, and the Name or Names of another or other Person or Persons shall be inserted in such List by the said Officer; and such Name or Names of such Person or Persons may be set aside or struck out in like Manner as if such Name or Names had been originally placed in such List as aforesaid; and in such Case the Names of other Persons shall be inserted so for the Purpose of supplying Names in the Places of those set aside or struck out, until the whole Number of Forty-eight Names of Persons not objected to as liable to be struck out shall be completed: and the said Officer shall afterwards make out for each Party a List of such Forty-eight Names, together with the respective Places of Abode and Additions of the Persons: and all the subsequent Proceedings for reducing the said List, and all other Matters whatsoever relating to Special Juries, shall remain and continue in force: and in any such Action or Suit it shall not afterwards be deemed, taken, allowed, or admitted as a Cause or Ground of Challenge of any of such Persons, that any such Person was of collateral Kindred or Affinity with any Member of such Corporate Body.

XXXI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Amendment of the Laws with respect to Special Juries and to Trials in Counties of Cities and Towns and Towns Corporate in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that in every Action, whether the same be transitory or local, which shall be prosecuted or depending in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, and in every Indictment removed into His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench in Dublin by Writ of Certiorari, and in every Information filed by His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in Ireland, or by Leave of the Court of King's Bench in Ireland, and in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall plead to or traverse any of the Facts contained in the Return to any Writ of Mandamus in Ireland, if the Verdict in such Action, Indictment, or Information be laid in any County of a City, County of a Town, or Town Corporate within Ireland, or if such Writ of Mandamus be directed to any Person or Persons, or Body Public or Corporate, in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Action, Indictment, Information, or other Proceeding shall be depending, at the Prayer and Instance of any Prosecutor or Plaintiff, or of any Defendant, to direct the Issue or Issues joined in such Action, Indictment, Information, or Proceeding to be tried by a Jury of the County next adjoining to such County of a City, County of a Town, or Town Corporate, and to award proper Writs of Venue or Distringas accordingly, if the said Court shall think fit and proper so to do: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act should be applied to Informations issued by Term Grand Juries of the County or County of the City of Dublin, in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland, be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth as is herein-before specified shall apply and extend to and include any Indictment found by any Term Grand Jury of XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Man, having been duly summoned to attend on any Kind of Jury in any of the Courts in this Act mentioned, shall not attend in pursuance of such Summons, or being Thrice called shall not answer to his Name, or if any such Man, or any Taleman, after having been called, shall be present but not appear, or after his Appearance shall wilfully withdraw himself from the Presence of the Court, the Court shall set such Fine upon every such Man or Taleman so making default (unless some reasonable Excuse shall be proved by Oath or Affidavit) as the Court shall think meet: Provided always, that where any Viewer, having been duly summoned to attend on any Jury, shall make default as aforesaid, the Court is hereby authorized and required to set upon such Viewer (unless some reasonable Excuse shall be proved as aforesaid) a Fine to the Amount of Ten Pounds at the least, and as much more as the Court, under the Circumstances of the particular Case, shall think proper.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Sheriff and other Minister to whom the Return of Juries shall belong shall do and is hereby indemnified for impaneling and returning any Man named in the Jurors Book, although he may not be qualified or able to serve as Juries; and that if any Sheriff or other such Minister shall wilfully impanel and return any Man to serve on any Jury before any of the Courts herein-before mentioned, (except as the Grand Jury at any Assizes or Sessions) such Man's Name not being inserted in the Jurors Book for the current Year, or if such Name has not been delivered, then in the Jurors Book last delivered, or if any Prothonotary, Judge's Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer of any of the Courts in this Act mentioned, shall wilfully record the Appearance of any Man so summoned and returned who did not really appear, in every such Case the Court shall, upon Recommendation in a summary Way, set such Fine upon such Sheriff, Minister, Prothonotary, Judge's Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer offending, as the Court shall think meet.

XLVIII. And whereas it is alleged that the Employments of the present Masters in Chancery, and of the Registrars and the Clerks of the said Registrars, and of the Clerks to the Entering Registrars, and of the Examiners and their Clerks, will be greatly diminished by the Operation of this Act, for which they printed images deposited by the University of Southampton in their Catalogue 1832. class claim to have Compensation made: And whereas the Office of Master of the Report Office, now held by Thomas Alexander Bagnall Esquire, and the Office of Clerk of Exception, and of Agent to the Senior Deputy Registrar, now held by Mr. James Bird, will be abolished by this Act: And whereas the Office of Registrar of Affidavits will have ceased and discontinued from and after the Twentieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and a Clerk of Affidavits, with greatly reduced Emoluments, is to be substituted for the said Registrar by virtue of this Act; and instead of Two Assistant Clerks in the said Office there is hereafter to be only One such Clerk: And whereas William Nicholson, the present Senior Clerk in the said Office, has been employed as a Clerk therein for Forty-two Years past, and by infirm Health is become incapable of effectually discharging the Duties of the Office of Clerk of Affidavits: and the said Thomas Alexander Bagnall Esquire, James Bird, and William Nicholson claim Compensation in respect of their said several Offices so held by them: be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, within the Space of Six Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, by Examination on Oath or otherwise, which Oath they and each of them are and is hereby authorized to administer, to inquire whether any, and if any what, Compensation ought to be made to all or any of the said Officers and Persons herein-before mentioned as claiming such Compensation, the said Commissioners having regard to the Conditions as to which the Appointment of any such Officer was made, or to any Notice which at the Time of such Appointment may have been given to such Officer, that such Office was to be held subject to any Provision by Parliament for the Abolition or Hospitalisation thereof, but with full Power for the said Commissioners to investigate and determine whether, from the Nature of the said Office or the Mode of Acquisition thereof, any such Conditions or Notice could have been properly made or given, and also having regard to the holding of any Office, Place, or Situation by such Officer under this Act; and that in all Cases in which it shall appear to the said Lords Commissioners that Compensation ought to be granted, it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to order and direct that such annual or other Compensation shall be made to the Persons so claiming such Compensation as aforesaid, or any of them, as to the said Lords Commissioners in their Discretion shall seem just and reasonable; and all such Compen- sations, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid and payable by the said Accountant General, by virtue of an Order or Orders for that Purpose to be made by the said Court of Chancery, out of the Funds hereby directed to be carried to the said Account entitled "The Sixteen Far Fund Account": Provided always, that an Account of all such Compen- sations shall, within Fourteen Days next after the same shall be so granted, be laid upon the Table of the House of Commons, if Parliament shall be then assembled, or if Parliament shall not be then assembled, then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following.

XLIX. And whereas it may be expedient for the further diminishing of the Expence of Suits in the said Court of Chancery that other Abolitions may be made in the Practice of the said Court by abolishing Orders of Course and otherwise, and such Abolitions may materially diminish the present Emoluments of the Secretary of the Master of the Rolls: be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to inquire whether any, and if any what, Compensation ought to be made to the said Secretary for any such Loss of Emoluments, regard being had to the Nature of his Office, and to the Compen- sations under which such Emoluments are payable and have lately in- creased; and if it shall appear to the said Lords Commissioners that Compensation ought to be granted, it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to order and direct that such annual or other Compensation shall be made to the present Secretary, or to the Secretary of the Master of the Rolls for the Time being, as to the said Lords Com- missioners in their Discretion shall seem just and reasonable; and such Compensation, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid in like Manner and out of the like Fund as is herein-before provided with reference to Compen- sations to be granted to other Officers of the said Court; and an Account of any such Grant of Compensation shall be laid before Parliament in the same Manner as is provided as to other Compen- sations.

L. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for making Provision for such Masters or Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery as from Age or Infirmity shall be desirous of resigning their Office, and the Appoint- ment of the said Court, and for augmenting the Income of the Masters or Ordinary of the said Court, it is provided, amongst other Things, that it shall be competent to the Lord Chancellor to order an Annuity or clear yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds, to be paid to any of the Eleven Masters or Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery who shall have been a Master or Ordinary of the said Court for the Term of Twenty Years, or who shall be afflicted with some per- manent Infirmity disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, and who shall be desirous of resigning the same: And whereas it is expedient that Allowance should not be made to any of such Masters hereafter to be appointed in respect of Length of Service, but only in case of permanent Infirmity and Disability: be it therefore enacted, That no Master or Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery to be appointed after the passing of this Act shall receive or be entitled to receive any Annuity or Allowance whatsoever in respect only of Length of Service; any thing in the said heretofore Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Order shall hereafter be made by the Lord Chancellor for the Payment to any such Master or Ordinary of an Annuity or Allowance, he shall be bound to Persons herein mentioned under certain Conditions.

Treasury may grant Compensation in Discretion of the Master of the Rolls.

Masters or Chancery appointed after the passing of this Act are not to be entitled to Annuity for Length of Service.

Order for Payment of Annuity to Masters to receive the Cause of making the same.

that such Master may have become afflicted with some permanent Infirmary disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, then and in such Case the said Lord Chancellor shall in such Order state the Cause for the making the same, and shall cause a Copy of such Order to be laid on the Table of the House of Commons within Fourteen Days next after the making the same if Parliament shall be then assembled, and if Parliament shall not be sitting, then within Fourteen Days next after the assembling thereof.

Copy of any Order for the Annuity to be laid before the House of Commons.

LII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the said Lord Chancellor shall order any Annuity to be paid to any Officer whatsoever of the Court of Chancery, by virtue of any Authority vested in him for that Purpose, the said Lord Chancellor shall cause a Copy of every such Order to be laid on the Table of the House of Commons within the Periods herein-before mentioned.

Commencement of Act.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall come into operation, as to the Office of Clerk of the Affidavits, and the Duties therein and incident thereto, immediately after the passing of this Act, and as to all other Matters herein contained, on the Twenty-sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

C. A. P. XXVII.

An Act to prevent the selling and uttering of forged Stamps, and to exempt from Stamp Duty artificial Mineral Waters in Great Britain, and to allow a Draw-back on the Exportation of Gold and Silver Plate manufactured in Ireland. [29th August 1833.]

WHEREAS the Laws heretofore enacted and now in force in Great Britain have been found insufficient to prevent the selling and uttering of forged Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and it is expedient to make further Enactments in that behalf: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, by Writing under the Hand of any Two or more of them, to grant a License free of Expense to any Person whom they in their Discretion shall think fit and proper for the Purpose (not being a Distributor of Stamps appointed by the said Commissioners, nor a Sub-Distributor appointed by any such Distributor,) to vend and deal in Stamps at any Place or Places in Great Britain to be named in such License: Provided always, that every Person to whom any such License shall be granted shall enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in a penal Sum of One hundred Pounds, conditioned that such licensed Person shall not sell or offer for Sale or Exchange, or keep or have in his Possession for the Purpose of Sale or Exchange, any Stamp or Stamps other than such as he shall have purchased or procured at the Head Office for Stamps in Westminster or Edinburgh, or from some Distributor of Stamps duly appointed by the said Commissioners, or from some Person licensed to deal in Stamps under the Authority of this Act: Provided always, that such Bond shall not be liable in any Stamp Duty, and that One License and One Bond only shall be required for any Number of Persons in Companyship: and provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, whenever they shall think fit, by Notice in Writing, signed by any Two or more of them, to revoke and make void any such License as aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted, That in every such License to vend or deal in Stamps there shall be truly specified the proper Christian Name and Surname and Place of Abode of the Person to whom the same shall be granted, and a true Description of the House or Shop or Houses or Shops in or at which he shall by such License be authorized to vend or deal in Stamps; and such Person shall not be thereby authorized or entitled to vend or deal in Stamps in or at any other House, Shop, or Place than such as shall be so specified and described in such License.

III. A. D. 1834 C. 110

Chief Landlord or Lessee of Lands chargeable with Composition for Tithes entitled to enforce Payment of such Term of years as is preferred to others, provided he shall signify his Desire within 10 Weeks after passing of this Act

XXV. And be it enacted, That whenever the Person appearing by any such amended Memorial and Schedule and Account, as deposited with the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, to have owed, at the Time of presenting such Memorial, any Sum for or on account of the Tithe included in such Memorial and Schedule, shall occupy the Land in respect whereof such Tithe ought to have been paid, then and in such Case any Landlord liable to and paying the Sum hereby added to the Composition for Tithe payable in respect of such Land shall be entitled, on each Occasion of paying such additional Sum, to add One Fifth of the Sum appearing by such amended Memorial and Schedule and Account to have been due, at the Time of presenting such Memorial, for Tithe by such Tenant to the Rent payable by such Tenant, and shall and may enforce Payment thereof by all such Ways and Means as by Law provided for the Recovery of Rent: Provided always, that where any aforesaid Landlord shall be liable to the Payment of such Composition, he shall be entitled, upon each such Occasion as aforesaid, to recover, by all such Ways and Means aforesaid, such Fifth of the Arrears of Tithe appearing due by such Schedule and Account as aforesaid from his next immediate Tenant, and such next immediate Tenant shall be entitled, in like Manner and by like Means, to recover the same from the Tenant deriving next under him, and so on successively to the immediate Landlord of such occupying Tenant, who shall be entitled to receive, in like Manner and by like Means, the same and from such occupying Tenant by whom such Arrears of Tithe may have been insured.

XXVI. And whereas the Sum to be added to the Composition for Tithes payable out of the several Land liable thereto is hereto-before directed to be computed by reference to the Amount of the Sums appearing by every such Memorial and Schedule as aforesaid to remain due and owing for Tithe from and out of such Lands respectively, subject to the Deduction of certain Per-centages hereto-before mentioned, and such Deduction is intended as a Bonus to the Persons liable to the Payment of such Compositions, but in some Cases such Persons may be the same Persons by whom such Arrears of Tithe may have been incurred, and it is not just that any Bonus should be afforded to such Persons: be it therefore enacted, That whenever the Person liable to the Payment of the Addition to any Composition payable therewith by the Provisions of this Act shall appear by any such amended Memorial and Schedule and Account as aforesaid to owe any Sum for or on account of any Tithe included therein, such Person shall, over and above such Composition and the Addition payable therewith, be bound to pay on each Occasion of paying such Addition such Sum as shall be equal to Twenty-five Pounds per Centum on the Fifth of the Arrears of Tithe due by such Person for the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one and One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and Fifteen per Cent. on the Fifth of the Arrears of Tithe due by him for the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and such Sum, calculated as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of such Composition, and recoverable as well as the said Addition therewith.

XXVII. And whereas an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend Three Acts, passed respectively in the Fourth, Fifth, and in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, providing for the Establishment of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland, and to make such Compositions permanent, whereby it was among other things enacted, that it should be lawful for any Person having in possession any Estate or Interest in Land charged or which may become chargeable with the Payment of any Composition for Tithes, such Person not being a Tenant for any longer Term than a Term of Twenty-one Years from the Commencement thereof, and any such Person was thereby empowered and entitled to agree for and undertake the Payment of such Composition, on the Terms and in the Manner and subject to the Preference and other Regulations in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament contained: And whereas it was by the said last-recited Act further enacted, that the chief Landlord or Lessee seized of any Rent and Reversion in Land charged or which might become chargeable with any such Composition for Tithes should be entitled to agree for and undertake the Payment of such Composition in preference to all other Persons whatsoever, provided that such chief Landlord or Lessee should signify, in manner by the said last-recited Act provided and appointed, his Desire so to do within Six Calendar Months next after the passing of the said last-recited Act: And whereas the Period by the said last-recited Act limited for the Preference of such chief Landlords or Lessors has expired, and it is expedient that further Time should be given to allow such chief Landlords or Lessors to take upon them the Payment of such Compositions, be it therefore enacted, That the chief Landlord or Lessee seized of any Rent or Reversion in Land charged or which may become chargeable with any Composition for Tithes shall be entitled to agree for and undertake the Payment of such Composition on the Terms and in the Manner and subject to the Regulations in the said last-recited Act contained, in preference to all other Persons whatsoever, provided that such chief Landlord or Lessee shall signify, in manner by the said last-recited Act appointed, his Desire so to do within Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act: Provided always, that from and after the Expiration of the Period hereby limited for the Preference of such chief Landlords or Lessors it shall and may become lawful for Persons having Estates or Interests derived under such chief Landlords or Lessors, and not being Tenants for any longer Term than a Term of Twenty-one Years from the Commencement thereof, to agree for and undertake the future Payment of such Compositions, on the Terms, and in the Manner, and subject to the Preference among such other, and to the other Regulations in the said recited Act contained, and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall extend to disturb or invalidate any Agreement or Undertaking for the Payment of such Compositions which may have been entered into before the passing of this Act by any inferior Landlord or Lessee, nor to enable any such Landlord or Lessee to recover any such Compositions, provided always, that if establishing Compositions for Tithes respectively limited for making Appeal against such Compositions shall have expired; and in any Case in which such Appeal shall be made all such Proceedings upon such Application shall be suspended until the Determination thereof; and upon such Determination the Memorial and Schedule by which such Application may have been made shall, if need be, be transmitted to the Memorialist, to be by him amended and returned to the said Lord Lieutenant and Council, if he shall so think fit; and upon the Return of any such Memorial and Schedule all such Proceedings as by this Act directed in respect of any Application for Relief thereunder shall and may be taken in respect thereof, although the Time limited by this Act for the making Applications for Relief thereunder shall have expired: Provided always, that such Memorial and Schedule shall be returned within Six Weeks after the same shall have been so transmitted to the Memorialist.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever, upon any Appeal made under this Act or any of the Acts in force for establishing Compositions for Tithes in Ireland, the Lord Lieutenant and Council shall make Order for altering the Amount of any Composition or Apportionment thereof, such Order shall relate to and take effect from such Time as each Lord Lieutenant and Council shall think fit to declare; and the Book of Appointments shall in all such Cases be altered and amended as each Lord Lieutenant and Council shall direct.

XXXV. And whereas by the Acts now in force in Ireland for the establishing Compositions for Tithes such Compositions are payable by Two equal half-yearly Payments, one on the First Day of May and one on the First Day of November in each Year, and it is expedient that such Compositions should be made payable by One yearly Payment on the First Day of November in every Year, be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Acts as authorizes or directs the Collection of Levy of such Compositions by Two equal half-yearly Payments, the one whereof to become due on the first Day of May and the other on the first Day of November in each and every Year, shall be repealed, and that the Amount of such Compositions shall be collected and levied by One yearly Payment which shall become due on the first Day of November in each and every Year, and which shall and may be recovered by all such Ways and Means as by the said recited Acts provided for the Recovery of any such half-yearly Payment as aforesaid.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant to order and direct that any such Sum or Sums of Money as he shall think necessary shall from Time to Time be advanced out of the Produce of the Consolidated Fund arising in Ireland for the defraying of any Expenses to be incurred in the carrying this Act into execution, not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for carrying the same into execution in any one County, and that all such Advances shall be made to such Persons, at such Times, in such Manner, and under such Rules and Regulations, as shall from Time to Time be ordered and directed by each Lord Lieutenant, and as shall be signified in the usual Manner by the Chief Secretary of each Lord Lieutenant, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary; and that a Certificate of the Amount of the Money so advanced for carrying this Act into execution in each County, under the Hand of such Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, shall be sent to the Treasurer of the County for which such Money shall have been so advanced; and such Treasurer shall lay such Certificate before the Grand Jury of each County at the next Assizes; and such Grand Jury shall and they are hereby required to present the Amount stated in such Certificate to be raised all such County in the next Quarter as any Money presented by any Grand Jury may by Law be raised therefrom; and it shall not be lawful for the Court at any such Assizes so far as any Presentments for raising any other Money until such Presentments for the Repayment of such Advances be first made and allowed; and whenever the Amount stated in such Certificate shall be levied, the same shall be paid over to the Collector of Excise of the District (or in each other Manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct), and the Monies so arising shall be applied to replace the Sums so advanced out of the said Consolidated Fund.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, at his Discretion, to appoint, by Warrant under his Hand, for the Duty of presiding at the Special Sessions to be held under the Provisions of this Act in any County, any Barrister or Barristers of not less than Six Years standing at the said Bar, to be Assistant or as Deputies of the Assize Barrister or Chairman; and that all the Powers, Duties, and Authorities given or imposed by this Act to or upon any Assize Barrister or Chairman are and shall be by virtue of such Warrant given to and imposed upon such Assistant or Deputy; and that all Acts to be done by such Deputies or Assistants shall be of the same Efficacy in Law as if done by the Assize Barrister or Chairman, upon whom such Duties would have otherwise devolved under this Act; and that all such and the like Fees as would have been payable to any such Assistant Barrister or Chairman at any Special Sessions under the Provisions of this Act shall be paid and payable, for his own Use, to the Deputy or Assistant who may by virtue of such Warrant preside at such Special Sessions; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant to grant to any Barrister acting under any such Warrant such Remuneration, in addition to the Amount of Fees so received by him, as such Lord Lieutenant shall think fit, but so that the Amount of such Fees, together with such additional Remuneration, shall not in the whole exceed Five Guineas for each Day during which he may be so employed, over and above his travelling or other Expenses; and every such Barrister, after the Termination of his last Sitting, shall lay or cause to be laid before the said Lord Lieutenant a Statement of the Amount of such Fees, and of the Number of Days during which he shall have been employed, and an Account of the travelling and other Expenses incurred by him in respect of such Employment, and such Lord Lieutenant shall make an Order for the Amount to be paid to such Barrister out of the Consolidated Fund.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Stamp Duty shall be paid or chargeable upon any Proceeding, Order, Copy, Instrument, Document, Receipt, or other Matter or Thing occurring, used in, or occasioned by any Proceeding under this Act; any other Act or Acts, or any Law or Usage, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall make or take any Oath or Affidavit under or in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, and therein wilfully or knowingly swear or answer falsely to any Matter or Thing, every such Person, being duly convicted thereof, shall sever and suffer such Penalties, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are by Law liable to.

XL. And be it enacted, That the words " Lord Lieutenant " or " Lord Lieutenant of Ireland," wherever used in this Act, shall extend to and include any Lords Justice or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being; and the Words " Commissioners of the Treasury " shall be construed to mean any Three or more of such Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and whenever such Officer there shall be; and the Words " any Person entitled to any Tithe " shall be construed to extend to and include all Ecclesiastical Persons, and Bodies Corporate, Sole, or Aggregate, Lay or Ecclesiastical or Collegiate, and all Incumbents of Parishes, whether Rectors, Vicars, or Curates, and all Proprietors and Approprietors, and every Person or Persons whatsoever being the Owner or Owners of or entitled in any Manner whatsoever, at Law or in Equity, in law, her, or their own Right, or in Trustes, Devisees, Personal Representatives, Lessees, or otherwise, to any Tithes or Portion or Portions of Tithes, or Composition for Tithes, as well as to Tithes; and the Word " Composition " shall extend and be applied to any Portion or Portions of a Composition as well as to a Composition; and the Word " County " shall extend and be applied to any Riding, County of a City, or County of a Town as well as a County at large; and the Word " Parish " shall extend and be applied to any Extra-parochial Place or Places separately chargeable with any Composition for Tithes as well as to a Parish; and whatsoever the Word " Landlord " or " Person " or " Memorialist " is used in this Act, the Provision shall extend to and include the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Landlord or Person or Memorialist; and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing, and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male, save and except where in the Use of any of the Words or Expressions aforesaid the Nature of the Provision or the Context shall exclude such Construction.

XLI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Child within the Age herein-before restricted to Nine Hours of Day Labour shall have been employed in any One Day for less than Nine Hours in One Factory or Mill, it shall be lawful for any Person to employ such Child in any other Factory or Mill on the same Day for the Residue of such Nine Hours; provided that such Employment in such other Mill or Factory shall not increase the Labour of such Child to more than Nine Hours in any One Day, or to more than Forty-eight Hours in any One Week.

XIV. And he is further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of the several Periods herein-before appointed for restricting the Employment of Children under the Ages of Eleven, Twelve, and Thirteen Years respectively, it shall not be lawful to employ, keep, or allow to remain in any Factory or Mill any Person between the said Ages respectively and the Age of Eighteen for more than Nine Hours in any Day, nor between the Hours of Nine o'Clock in the Evening and Five o'Clock in the Morning, without first requiring and receiving from such Person a Certificate in proof that such Person is above the Age of Eleven, Twelve, and Thirteen respectively; which Certificate, if a new Certificate shall be required, shall be in such Form as may be ordered by any Inspector.

XVII. XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, if he shall see fit, upon the Application of any Inspector, to appoint any One or more Persons to superintend, under the Direction of any Inspector, the Execution of the Provisions of this Act, and of all Rules, Regulations, and Orders made under the Authority thereof; and such Person shall be paid by such Salary as may be determined by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Person so appointed shall have Authority to enter any School-rooms, Counting-house, or any Part of any Factory or Mill, excepting such Part or Parts as may be used for manufacturing Processes; and if any Constable or Peace Officer shall be required by any Inspector to perform any continuous Service, it shall be lawful for such Inspector to allow a special Allowance to such Constable or Peace Officer for such Service; Provided nevertheless, that any such Orders may be obtained or disallowed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, on Complaint made to him by Memorial from any Party interested.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Six Months from the passing of this Act every Child heretofore restricted to the Performance of Forty-eight Hours of Labour in any One Week shall, so long as such Child shall be within the said restricted Age, attend some School to be chosen by the Parents or Guardians of such Child, or such School as may be appointed by any Inspector in case the Parents or Guardians of such Child shall omit to appoint any School, or in case such Child shall be without Parents or Guardians; and it shall and may be lawful, in such last-mentioned Case, for any Inspector to order the Employer of any such Child to make a Deduction from the weekly Wages of such Child as the same shall become due, not exceeding the Rate of One Penny in every Shilling, to pay for the Schooling of such Child; and such Employer is hereby required to pay the Sum so deducted according to the Order and Direction of such Inspector.

C A P. I.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for regulating the Labour of Children and young Persons in the Mills and Factories of the United Kingdom.

[20th February 1834.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to regulate the Labour of Children and young Persons in the Mills and Factories of the United Kingdom, it was enacted among other things that certain Provisions of the said Act should come into operation at the End of Eighteen Months, and certain other Provisions also at the End of Thirty Months, after the passing of the said Act; and it is expedient that the Periods mentioned in the said Provisions respectively should be construed to be Calendar Months, not Lunar Months; he it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Periods of Eighteen Months and Thirty Months mentioned in the said Act shall be construed and taken to mean Periods of Eighteen Calendar Months and Thirty Calendar Months respectively.

II. And whereas it is provided by the said Act, that in Mills for the Manufacture of Silk, Children under the Age of Thirteen Years shall be allowed to work Ten Hours in any one Day; and Doubts have arisen whether, according to the true Construction of the said Act, Children in such Mills can be allowed to work Ten Hours every working Day in the Week; he it therefore enacted, That in Mills for the Manufacture of Silk, Children under the Age of Thirteen Years shall be allowed to work Ten Hours every working Day in the Week; and that this Enactment shall be substituted in the Place of the Provision herein-before referred to, and be taken in all respects as Part of the said Act.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

C A P. II.

An Act to apply certain Sums to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four.

Power of General Court-martial.

VII. And be it enacted, That a General Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison, or other Place which the Court or the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached shall appoint, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the Whole or any Part or Portions of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, or may sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, and Neglect of Duty; and a General Court-martial may, in addition to any such Punishment as aforesaid, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and Pardon on Discharge; and whenever any General Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may, instead of awarding a Corporal Punishment or Imprisonment, adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which His Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and the Court may, in addition to any other Punishment, sentence such Offender to forfeit all Advantage as to Increase of Pay, or as to Pardon on Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Offender; provided that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces at the Presidency to which the Offender shall belong, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, in order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, as shall seem most to His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid; and if any Person transported as a Felon, whether in pursuance of the original Sentence of the Court-martial, or in pursuance of such Order from His Majesty, or from such Officer commanding in the East Indies as aforesaid, shall afterwards return or be freed at large, without Leave from His Majesty or other lawful Authority, within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad or at Home, other than the Place in which he shall have been transported, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Sentence or Order, and shall be duly considered thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Power of District or Garrison Court-martial.

IX. And be it enacted, That a District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than Seven Commissioned Officers, except in Bermuda, the Bahamas, Africa, and New South Wales, where it may consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers, and may sentence any Soldier to any Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison or other Place which such Court, or the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached, shall appoint, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the Whole or any Part or Portions of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, or may sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, or Neglect of Duty; and such Court may, in addition to either of the said Punishments, sentence a Soldier to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and to Pardon on Discharge, for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself, or any other Soldier, at the Instance of such Soldier, with Intent to render himself or such Soldier unfit for the Service;

In tampering with his Eyes;

In malingering, feigning Disease, absconding himself from Hospital whilst under Medical Care, or other gross Violation of the Rules of any Hospital, thereby wilfully producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or wilfully delaying his Care;

In misusing any Money or Goods, the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Men;

In producing false or fraudulent Accounts or Returns;

Or in committing any petty Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military;

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, infamous, or unnatural Kind;

And such Offender may be further put under Stoppage, not exceeding Two Thirds of his daily Pay, until the Amount he made good of any Loss or Damage arising out of his Misconduct; and if any Soldier shall be convicted of any such disgraceful Conduct, and shall be sentenced to Forfeiture of his Claim to Pensions, the Court may further recommend him to be discharged with Ignominy from His Majesty's Service; and any such Court shall deprive a Soldier, if convicted of a Charge of habitual Drunkenness, of his Allowance in lieu of Beer or Liquor, or of such Proportion thereof, or of such Portion of his additional or regular Pay, for each Period, not exceeding Two Years, as may accord with His Majesty's Articles of War, subject to Restoration on subsequent good Conduct; and in addition to any such Punishment, the Court may, if it shall think fit, sentence such Offender to Imprisonment or to Corporal Punishment, provided that in all the foregoing Cases the Sentence of a District or Garrison Court-martial shall be confirmed by the General Officer, Garrison, or other Officer in command of the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony; and the President of every Court-martial, other than a General Court-martial, not being under the Rank of Captain, shall be appointed by the Officer convening such Court-martial; provided that such Court-martial shall not have Power to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

X. And he is enacted, That in Cases of Mutiny and gross Insubordination, or any Offence committed on the Line of March, the Offence may be tried by a Regimental Court-martial, and the Sentence confirmed and carried into execution on the Spot by the Officer in the immediate Command of the Troops, provided that the Sentence shall not exceed that which a Regimental Court-martial is competent to award; and a Regimental Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, and to solitary Confinement for any Period not exceeding Twenty Days; and whenever any such Court-martial shall sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment as aforesaid it may (if it shall think fit) direct that he be kept in solitary Confinement for a certain Period or Portions of the Period of such Imprisonment: Provided always, that when such Court shall direct the Imprisonment to be part solitary and part otherwise, the whole Period of such Imprisonment, including the solitary Part thereof, shall not exceed Twenty Days; and a Regimental Court-martial may sentence any Soldier for being drunk when on or for Duty or Parade, or on the Line of March, to be deprived of a Penny a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award.

Regimental
Court-martial.

XI. And he is enacted, That every Soldier who shall be found guilty of Desertion by a General, or District, or Garrison Court-martial, whose such Findings shall be duly approved, or of Folly in any Court of Civil Jurisdiction, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, and Pensions on Discharge, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award; and it shall be lawful for any Court-martial empowered to try the Crime of Desertion, in addition to any other Punishment, to direct that the Offender be marked on the Left Side, Two Inches below the Armpit, with the Letter (D.), such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gaspowder, or other Preparation, so as to be visible and conspicuous, and not liable to be obliterated.

Marking a Deserter.

XII. And he is enacted, That every Soldier shall be liable to be tried and punished for Desertion from any Corps into which he may have enlisted, or from His Majesty's Service, although he may of right belong to the Corps from which he shall have originally deserted; and if such Person shall be claimed as a Deserter by the Corps to which he originally belonged, and be tried as a Deserter therefrom, or shall be tried as a Deserter from any other Corps into which he may have enlisted, or if he shall be tried while actually serving in some Corps for Desertion from any other Corps, every Deserter previous or subsequent to that for which he shall be under Trial, as well as every previous Conviction for any other Offence, may be gone in Evidence against him; and in like Manner in the Case of any Soldier tried for any Offence whatsoever, any previous Convictions may be given in Evidence against him; provided that no such Evidence shall in any Case be received until after the Prisoner shall have been found guilty of such Offence, and then only for the Purpose of adding Punishment; and provided also, that after he shall so have been found guilty, and before such Evidence shall be received, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that he had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence on the same; and provided further, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any greater or other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall so have been found guilty.

Subsequent Con-
Evidence from Punishments for Desertion.

XXIV. And he is enacted, That any Recruit who shall desert prior to joining the Regiment for which he has enlisted, shall, on being apprehended, and committed for such Desertion by any Justice of the Peace upon the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or upon his own Confession, be liable to be transferred to any Regiment or Depot nearest to the Place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other Regiment to which His Majesty may deem it more desirable that he should be transferred: Provided always, that all Cavalry Recruits so committed for Desertion shall be transferred to Cavalry Regiments, and Infantry Recruits to Infantry Regiments; and that such Desertion thus transferred shall not be liable to other Punishment for the Offence, nor to any other Penalty, except the Forfeiture of their personal Bounty, reserving only for them that Part of the Bounty which is applicable to and required for the Provision of Necessaries.

Recruits deserting liable to be

And he is enacted, That the Gaoler or Person having the immediate Inspection of any Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction in every Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall diet and supply every Soldier with Fuel and other Necessaries, according to the Regulations of the Prison to which he shall be committed, and shall receive on account of every Soldier, during the Period of his Imprisonment, Sixpence per Diem, which the Secretary at War shall cause to be issued out of the Subsistence of such Soldier, upon Application in Writing, signed by any Justice within whose Jurisdiction such Place of Confinement shall be legally situate, together with a Copy of the Order of Commitment, and which Sum of Sixpence per Diem shall be carried to the Credit of the Fund from which the Expence of such Prison or House of Correction is defrayed; and such Gaoler is hereby required to receive and confine every Deserter who shall be delivered into his Custody by any Soldier conveying such Deserter shall have been taken, or some Order from the Office of the Secretary at War, or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, which Orders shall be reciprocally valid within Great Britain and Ireland, and continue in force until the Deserter shall be acquitted, or the Detention in either Country and such Gaoler shall be entitled to One Shilling for the sole Custody of the said Deserter while held

How and where Troops may be billeted.

LL. And whereas by Petition of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burthened with the joining of Soldiers against their Wives; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Threepence, for paying and disbursing the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whomsoever, should thereafter presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billetting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, should, at any Time thereafter, be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Seaport Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another: But inasmuch as in this Time, during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the searching and quartering of Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bit and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and that they shall be relieved by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and be furnished by such Victuallers with proper Accommodation in such Houses, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates hereafter provided: and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs, when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and as more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more Justices, within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justice respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of His Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act, who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons to whose House or Stables the said Men and Horses shall have been so removed to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Men or Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justice to order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Persons relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in the furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and likewise any Officer or Soldier may be billeted in any Place with another another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses as aforesaid accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, or the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Houses or enlarge the District within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troops; provided that, to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constable, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Regt. if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful to billet Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Constable or other Person, who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any Officers or Soldiers in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall presume to billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House out within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty, when thereto required, in such Manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any Money or Reward whatsoever, in order to excuse any Person from receiving such Officer or Soldier; or shall quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officer or Soldier in any such Houses, against the Consent of the Occupiers, or shall neglect or refuse to execute such Warrants of the Justices or shall be directed to him for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same; or if any Person appointed by such Constable to provide Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall do any Act or Thing by which the Execution of such Warrants shall be hindered; or if any Constable shall neglect to deliver in to the Justices at Quarter Sessions Lists of Officers and Soldiers of the Foot Guards quartered according to the Provisions of this Act, or shall cause to be delivered defective Lists of the same; or if any Person, liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier quartered upon him, shall refuse to receive and to afford proper Accommodation or Diet in the House of such Person in which he is quartered, and to furnish the several Things directed to be furnished to Officers and Soldiers, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Bedding, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw for each Horse, at the Rate established by any Act in force in that respect; or if any Innkeeper or Victualler not having good and sufficient Stables shall refuse to pay over to the Person or Persons who may provide Stabling such Allowance by way of Compensation as shall be directed by any Justice of the Peace, or shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Soldier on the March in lieu of furnishing in kind the Diet and Small Beer to which such Soldier is entitled; such Constable, Victualler, or other Person respectively shall forfeit for every such Offence, Neglect, or Refusal any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings.

Punish upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets and Carriages.

C A P. VII.

An Act to repeal, at the Period within mentioned, so much of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office, as authorizes the taking of certain Rates of Inland Postage within His Majesty's Dominions in North America. [10th March 1834.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office, His Majesty's Postmaster General was authorized to take and receive certain Rates of Postage on the said Act specified for the Postage and Conveyance of Letters and Packets within the British Dominions in America: And whereas the said Rates have been collected in the British Colonies and Provinces in North America by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, and the Surplus thereof, after Payment of the Charges of Collection and Management, have been remitted to the General Post Office in London, as Part of the General Revenue of the Post Office: And whereas it is expedient that hereafterward the British Colonies and Provinces in His Majesty's Dominions in North America having local and independent Legislatures should be enabled by the Authority of such Legislatures to Levy, for the Inland Postage of Letters and Packets within such Colonies and Provinces, such Rates as to the said Legislatures shall seem meet, and also to make such Regulations for the Management of the Post Office within each respective Province and Colony, as His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, as to such Legislatures may seem expedient; and that the surplus Revenue arising from the Collection of such Rates should be applied and appropriated for the Use and Benefit of such respective Colonies and Provinces: (With which Provisions provided by the said Act intitled An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office), be it enacted with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

5 D 2 c 25.

After His Majesty's Consent shall be signified to Acts of the Parliament

Legislatures of the Provinces of North America, authorizing certain Rates of Postage to be taken therein, the Provisions of the recited Act as to the Collection of Postage within such Provinces shall be repealed.

Appropriation of Inland Rates of Postage in the North American Provinces.

Act may be altered.

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after His Majesty's Consent shall in the usual Form be signified by the Governors or Deputy Governors of His Majesty's Colonies or Provinces in North America by Bills or Acts of the Legislatures of such respective Colonies or Provinces, authorizing the demanding and taking within each respective Colony or Province, by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputy or Deputies, the like Rates of Postage as are authorized to be received and taken by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, or such other Rates of Postage as in and by such Bills or Acts respectively may be mentioned and authorized to be received and taken, and for making such Regulations for the Management of the Post Office within such Colonies and Provinces, by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, as shall be therein directed, then the said Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, so far as the said Act authorizes the Demanding and Receipt of any Rates for the Inland Carriage and Conveyance of Letters and Packets within such Colonies or Provinces respectively, shall nevertheless be absolutely repealed, and be so longer of any Effect.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after His Majesty's Consent shall be so signified to such Bills or Acts of Colonial or Provincial Legislatures as herein-before mentioned, all the Revenue which may arise from the Collection of the Rates of Inland Postage within the said respective Colonies or Provinces (after deducting the Expenses of Collection, and of the Establishment and Management of the Post Office within and throughout the said respective Colonies or Provinces under the Direction of His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies,) shall and may, instead of being remitted as heretofore to the General Post Office in London, as Part of the general Revenue of the Post Office, be appropriated, applied, and distributed to and among the said respective Colonies and Provinces in proportion to the gross Amount of the Rates and Duties of Postage which shall be raised, collected, and received within each and every such respective Colony or Province, unless and until the said Colonies or Provinces shall, by Bills or Acts of their respective Legislatures to which His Majesty's Consent shall in the usual Form be signified, unite and agree in directing any other Mode in which such Surplus shall be applied and disposed of.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. VIII.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the last Session, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland. [20th March 1834.]

1 R. 4 M. 4. c. 31.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Justices assembled at every Ouster General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in each Division of each County at large, and the Justices for and in each County of a City and County of a Town, in Ireland, shall, at a Sessions to be holden at October in every Year, fix a Place within such Division and within such Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, and also a Time not less than Two nor more than Three Calendar Months after the First Day of such General or Quarter Sessions, for holding a Special Sessions, for the Purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors in the said Act mentioned, pursuant to the Provisions thereof therein-after contained: And whereas the Periods so prescribed for the holding of such Special Sessions have been found inconvenient, by reason of their approaching so nearly to the End of the current Year as not to leave convenient Time for the making out of the Jurors Book for the next ensuing Year, and it is therefore expedient to alter the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Justices assembled at any Ouster General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in each Division of each County at large and each County of a City and County of a Town in Ireland shall fix a Place within such Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, and also a Time, not less than One Lunar Month nor more than Six Weeks after the First Day of such Ouster General or Quarter Sessions, for holding a Special Sessions for the Purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as by the said Act directed; and that the several Provisions and Clauses of the said recited Act relating to the Special Sessions thereby directed to be fixed at the October Sessions shall be extended and applied to and be in force with respect to the Special Sessions hereby required to be fixed.

Justices to fix a Place and Time for examining Lists of Jurors.

When Jurors Book is not completed, the Jurors of Jurors assembled in the Town in one before the recited Act to be deemed lawful.

II. And whereas, in consequence of the Difficulty which in certain Instances has been found to exist since the passing of the said recited Act in making up the List of Jurors before the First Day of January in the present Year, the Jurors Book by the said Act prescribed has not been made up in sufficient Time to be delivered to the Sheriff or other proper Officer, so as to be brought into use on the said First Day of January, as it by the said recited Act provided, and Jurors have therefore in those Cases been necessarily returned and impanelled in the Mode usually practiced before the passing of the said recited Act: And whereas it is expedient to prevent any Doubts with respect to the Validity of such Proceedings: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That where, in any County, County of a City, or County of a Town in Ireland, the said Jurors Book shall not have been delivered to the Sheriff or other proper Officer before the said First Day of January in this present Year, the returning and impaneling of Jurors in the ordinary or usual Mode and accustomed before the passing of the said recited Act shall be and be considered to have been lawful, and that all Returns and Parcels of Jurors in such Cases heretofore made, or hereafter, until the Completion and Delivery of a proper Jurors Book, to be made, have been, are, and shall, and shall be deemed and taken to be and to have been, to all Intents and Purposes, equally good, valid, regular, effectual, and binding in Law as if the said recited Act had not passed.

An Act for amending certain Provisions of an Act of the Thirty-sixth of George the Third, for regulating the buying and selling of Hay and Straw. [18th June 1804.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the buying and selling of Hay and Straw, and for repealing so much of Two Acts, made in the Second Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, and in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, as relate to the buying and selling of Hay and Straw within the Limits therein mentioned, it is amongst other things enacted, that the Markets for Sale of Hay and Straw within the Cities and Limits aforesaid shall end at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Market Day between Lady Day and Michaelmas, and at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Market Day between Michaelmas and Lady Day, and that Notices thereof shall be given by the Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, in the several Markets or Places for the Sale of Hay and Straw within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, by ringing, on the usual Market Days, a large Hand Bell round each respective Market or Place for the Sale of Hay or Straw, One Hour before the Expiration of the Times aforesaid, and again at the Expiration of the Hours aforesaid mentioned, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence a Sum of Money not exceeding Ten Shillings nor less than Five Shillings; and every Person who shall sell any Hay or Straw in any Market within the Cities or Limits aforesaid after the Hours aforesaid shall forfeit for every Bundle or Tress of Hay so sold the Sum of Sixpence, and for every Bundle or Tress of Straw so sold the Sum of Three-pence; and it is also by the same Act further enacted, that if any Person having the Care or Direction of any Waggons, Wain, or Cart used for the Purpose of bringing Hay or Straw shall suffer the same to remain in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay and Straw within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, on the usual Market Days from Lady Day to Michaelmas after Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, and from Michaelmas to Lady Day after Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in any Year, every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Waggon, Wain, or Cart so left as aforesaid a Sum of Money not exceeding Twenty Shillings nor less than Five Shillings. And whereas the said recited Provisions were well calculated to prevent Obstructions and Inconveniences to the Public in Markets held for the Sale of Hay and Straw in open or public Streets or thoroughfares, but the same are unnecessary, and may become vexatious and oppressive, in other Markets, and ought therefore to be partially repealed; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Provisions of the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-eight, which are therein aforesaid, shall be and they shall be hereby repealed in the following manner, to wit: That

An Act to amend an Act of the Eleventh Year of King George the Second, respecting the Apporportionment of Rents, Annuities, and other periodical Payments. [18th June 1834.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the more effectual securing the Payment of Rents, and providing Funds by Tenants, it was enacted, that where any Tenant for Life should happen to die before or on the Day on which any Rent was reserved or made payable upon any Demise or Lease of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which determined on the Death of such Tenant for Life, the Executors or Administrators of such Tenant for Life should and might, in an Action on the Case, recover of and from such Undertenant or Undertenant of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, if such Tenant for Life die on the Day on which the same was made payable, the whole, or if before such Day then a Proportion of such Rent according to the Time such Tenant for Life lived of the last Year or Quarter of a Year or other Time in which the said Rent was growing due as aforesaid, making all just Allowances, or a proportionable Part thereof respectively: And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the Provisions of the said Act apply to every Case in which the Interests of Tenants determine on the Death of the Person by whom such Interests have been created, and on the Death of any Life or Lives for which such Person was entitled to the Lands demised, although every such Case is within the Michief intended to have been remedied and provided by the said Act; and it is therefore desirable that such Doubts should be removed by a declaratory Law: And whereas, by Law, Rents, Annuities, and other Payments due at fixed or stated Periods are not apportionable (unless express Provision be made for the Purpose), from which it often happens that Persons (and their Representatives) whose Income is wholly or principally derived from these Sources by the Determination thereof before the Period of Payment arrives are deprived of Means to satisfy just Demands, and other Evils arise from such Rents, Annuities, and other Payments not being apportionable, which Evils require Remedy: It is therefore enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Rents reserved and made payable on any Demise or Lease of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which have been and shall be made, and which Leases or Demises determined or shall determine on the Death of the Person making the same (although such Person was not strictly Tenant for Life thereof), or on the Death of the Life or Lives for which such Person was entitled to such Hereditaments, shall, so far as respects the Rents reserved by such Leases, and the Recovery of a Proportion thereof by the Person granting the same, his or her Executors or Administrators (as the Case may be), be considered as within the Provisions of the said recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all Rents reserved on any Lease by a Tenant for Fee or for any Life Interest, or by any Lease granted under any Power, (and which Leases shall have been granted after the passing of this Act), and all Rents Charge and other Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, and all other Payments of every Description, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, made payable or coming due at fixed Periods under any Instrument that shall be executed after the passing of this Act, or (being a Will or Testamentary Instrument) that shall come into operation after the passing of this Act, shall be apportioned so and in such Manner that on the Death of any Person interested in any such Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, or other Payments as aforesaid, or in the Estate, Fund, Office, or Benefice from or in respect of which the same shall be issuing or derived, or in the Determination by any other Means whatsoever of the Interest of any such Person, he or she, and his or her Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to a Proportion of such Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, and other Payments according to the Time which shall have elapsed from the Commencement or last Period of Payment thereof respectively (in the Case may be), including the Day of the Death of such Person, or of the Determination of his or her Interest, all just Allowances and Deductions in respect of Charges on such Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, and other Payments being made; and that every such Person, his or her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall have such and the same Remedy at Law and in Equity for recovering such apportioned Parts of the said Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, and other Payments, when the entire Portion of a such such apportioned Parts shall form Part shall become due and payable, and not before, as he, she or they would have had for recovering and obtaining such entire Rents, Annuities, Pensions, Dividends, Modies, Compositions, and other Payments if omitted thereto, but so that Persons liable to pay Rents reserved by any Lease or Demise, and the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments comprised therein, shall not be assigned to for such apportioned Parts specifically or otherwise, nor the death of any of which the Tenants, their Executors or Administrators

IV. And be it enacted, That the several Provisions of this Act shall extend to every Case of a Trustee having some beneficial Estate or Interest in the same Subject, or some Duty as Trustee to perform, and also to every Case of a Trust arising or resulting by Implication of Law or by Construction of Equity.

V. XV. And be it further enacted, That the Compensation hereafter to be made or Superannuation Allowance to be granted in respect of Civil Services to any Person entitled to Half Pay in the Army, Ordnance, Navy, or Marines (who shall have been appointed to the Civil Service subsequently to the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two) shall in any Case, except as in this Act is specially provided, exceed in the whole (comprising his Half Pay in such Compensation or Allowance) the Amount of Two Thirds of the Salary and Emoluments of the Office relinquished by him: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle any Superintendent of a Dock Yard or other Establishment in the Civil Department of the Navy, who shall have held any Civil Appointment prior to the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, to any Superannuation Allowance under this Act beyond the Amount stipulated by the Terms on which he shall have accepted the Office of Superintendent, or the Amount established by any Order of His Majesty in Council concerning Superintendants.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any Case in which it shall appear to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury that any special Circumstances afford to any Officer or Clerk in the several Offices or Departments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or in the Addition authorized to be made thereto, who is not within the Exceptions therein contained, a just Claim to an Amount of Superannuation Allowance not authorized by this Act, or exceeding the Amount therein specified with reference to the Length of his Service, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to grant, or give Authority for granting, any special Superannuation which such Officer or Clerk shall appear to them to deserve; but in every such Case the Grounds on which such special Superannuation shall be granted or authorized shall be stated in the Grant thereof, or in the Authority for granting the same, and also entered in the Minutes of the Treasury, and shall likewise be laid before Parliament within One Month after the Fifth Day of January in each Year, if Parliament be sitting during that Period, or if not, then within One Month after the ensuing Meeting of Parliament.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Compensation for any Office abolished, nor any special Allowance or Remuneration for good Services to any Person holding or having held any Civil Office in any Public Department, shall be charged upon the Incidents or any other Fund of any such Department; and that no such Compensation, nor any Allowance or Compensation in the Nature of Superannuation or retired Allowance or Reward to any such Person in respect of his having held any Public Office or Employment, or having been engaged in any Public Service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the Authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them.

XIX. And be it further enacted and provided, That every Person to whom any Compensation or Allowance, in consequence of the Abolition or Reduction of Office, shall hereafter be granted shall at all Times, when called upon, be liable to fill, in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in which he shall have already served, any Public Office or Situation under the Crown for which his previous Public Services may render him eligible; and that if he shall decline, when called upon so to do, to take upon himself such Office or Situation, and execute the Duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent State of Health, he shall forfeit his Right to any Compensation or Allowance which may have been granted to him in respect of any former Service.

XX. XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained with respect to Compensation, Superannuation, or Allowance for Civil Services, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Military or Naval Half Pay, or Allowance in lieu of Half Pay, or to any Military or Naval Allowance or Pensions granted or to be granted, under the Regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That between the First Day of February and the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any Part of that Period, then within Twenty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an Account of every Increase and Diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding Year, ending on the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Number of Persons employed in all Public Offices or Departments under the Crown, and in the Salaries, Emoluments, Allowances, and Expences which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all Officers and Persons belonging to or employed in all such Public Offices or Departments, specifying the Amount and Nature thereof, and distinguishing every Increase and Diminution in the Amount of all Allowances or Compenations granted as Retired Allowances or Superannuations to any Person having held any Office, Place, or Employment in any such Public Office or Department, and also the Time and Length of Service of every such Person, and the Amount of the Salary and Emoluments received by such Person immediately preceding his Superannuation or Retirement, and the Nature of his Services, and the Grounds upon which such Increase or Diminution in the Establishment of every such Public Office or Department, or of any such Salary, Emolument, Allowance, Compensation, or Superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the Name of every Person receiving such Allowance or Compensation who may have died in the Course of the Year, together with the Amount of the annual Allowance payable to such Person.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That Accounts of all Compenations for Offices abolished, and of all Allowances in the Nature of Superannuation or Retired Allowances to all other Persons in respect of their having held any Public Office, or Employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the Period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

XXIV. And whereas the Scale of Allowances under this Act specifies the highest Rate which a superannuated Officer can receive unless his Case be specially laid before Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury and the Lords of the Admiralty for the Time being respectively should consider the Health, Age, meritorious Conduct, and other Circumstances of each Party applying for a Superannuation Allowance, in order to ascertain their Discretion in fixing the Amount of such Allowance, subject always to the Limitation prescribed by this Act: And whereas it is expedient that Parliament should be made acquainted with the Manner in which such Discretion shall be exercised; be it therefore enacted, That all Orders of His Majesty in Council, and Minutes of the Lords of the Treasury, which shall at any Time be framed or passed laying down any general Rule or Regulation respecting the granting of Superannuation Allowances, shall within One Month of the Date thereof, if Parliament should be then sitting, or if not, then within One Month after the Commencement of the next ensuing Session of Parliament, be laid before the Two Houses of Parliament respectively.

XXVII. And whereas the Commissioners of the Treasury did, by a Minute dated the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, record their Intention to adopt certain Regulations with a view to reduce prospectively the Charge incurred in providing for Superannuation Allowances, of which Notice was given in the several Public Departments, for the Information of those who should thereafter enter the Public Service; And whereas, in pursuance of the said Minute, and annual Abatement hath been made from the Salaries and Emoluments of the several Persons who have entered the Public Service subsequent to the Date thereof: And whereas it is expedient to continue such Abatement in those Cases, and to extend it to others as hereinafter provided: be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act there shall be an annual Abatement made, in quarterly Proportions, by the proper Officer in each respective Department, from the Salaries and Emoluments of the several Officers and Persons employed in the several Civil Offices and Departments specified in the Schedule to this Act, or to be specified in the Addition authorized to be made therein, and not within the Exceptions thereof, who have since the Date of the said Minute entered or shall hereafter enter the Public Service, in such Manner and under such Directions as shall from Time to Time be given in this respect by the Commissioners of the Treasury or of the Admiralty, as the Case may be; the Amount of which Abatement shall be according to the respective Rates following; (that is to say,)

Half Pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

Compenations not provided for to be charged on a Part of the Department. Abatement to be made from the Salaries of those who have entered Office since the 4th Aug. 1821.

the Minute of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, bearing Date the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, for the future Regulation of the several Civil Departments of the Public Service, and who shall hereafter, upon Promotion, obtain any Increase of Salary or Allowances in respect of their Offices, so annual Allowances, after the like Rates respectively, shall be made from the Amount of such Increase from Time to Time, commencing from the Period where the same shall take place.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons at the Head of any Department in which any Fees or other Sources of Profit may form Part of the Emoluments of any Office in such Department, to fix, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of the Admiralty, if the Office shall be in that Department, an average Sum upon which the Compensation or Superannuation Allowance shall be granted, as well as the Sum to be annually shared, as herein-before provided, from such Person's Salary in respect of such Emoluments, which Sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average Amount of such Emoluments for the Three last preceding Years.

II. And whereas by the said recited Act certain Officers therein mentioned, who have not Accrued to them, are authorized to draw Bills quarterly for the Balance of their personal Pay, and certain other Officers are thereby authorized to draw Bills only for Three Fourths of their Pay: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Authority to draw for the Whole of their Pay to the several Officers herein-after mentioned; be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four it shall be lawful for every Captain, Commodore, Lieutenant, or Master commanding a Ship, Surgeon, Purser, and Assistant Surgeon acting as Surgeon, in the several Cases to be approved by the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid for the Time being, and under such Regulations, Limitations, and Restrictions as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time establish, to draw a Bill upon the Accountant General of the Navy periodically for the said personal Pay which shall be then due to any such Officer: Provided always, that all Bills for personal Pay to be drawn under the Authority either of the said recited Act or this Act shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be drawn for such Periods of Time and up to such periodical Days in the Year as the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid shall from Time to Time fix and establish for that Purpose.

III. And whereas by the said recited Act an Advance of Two Months Pay is authorized to be made to Volunteer Seamen and Landmen on the first sitting out of the Ship to which they shall be appointed to serve: And whereas it is expedient to extend that Benefit to the several Persons herein-after mentioned; be it further enacted, That from and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, Matees, Boatswains, Gunners, Carpenters, Second Masters, and Petty Officers shall be entitled to receive a similar Advance of Two Months personal Sea Pay at such Times, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as Volunteer Seamen and Landmen are allowed to receive the same.

An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Contribution out of Merchant Seamen's Wages towards the Support of the Royal Naval Hospital at Greenwich, and for supplying other Funds in lieu thereof. [25th July 1834.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, for the Increase and Encouragement of Seamen, it was amongst other Things enacted, that every Seaman who should serve His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or any other Person in any of His Majesty's Ships, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to the Subjects of England or any other His Majesty's Dominions, should allow and there should be paid out of the Wages of every such Seaman so grown due Sixpence per Month, for the better Support of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, which Allowance and Allowment were by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne extended to the Wages of every Seaman and other Person employed in any Ship or Vessel belonging to the Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereto belonging; and the said Allowance was, by another Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Second, further extended to the Wages of Seamen belonging to the Ships and Vessels of the Islands of Grensey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and of His Majesty's Colonies in America: And whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for transferring the Management of Greenwich Out-Pensions and certain Duties to Masters of Prize to the Treasurer of the Navy, it is enacted, that such Allowance out of the Wages of all Seamen serving His Majesty or employed in any of His Majesty's Ships should cease to be payable: And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for amending the Laws relating to the Civil Departments of the Navy, it is declared that the said Allowance shall be abated out of the Wages of every Person serving in any Ship or Vessel (not being in Commission and in the Pay of the Royal Navy) which shall belong to or be employed in the Service of His Majesty in the several Departments of the Public Service: And whereas it is expedient that the Allowance or Contribution of Sixpence per Month out of the Wages of all Seamen whatsoever, as well those employed in the Ships or Vessels in the Service of His Majesty as in the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom, and of the Dominions, Islands, and Territories thereto belonging, should no longer be made towards the Support of the said Hospital, and that in lieu thereof other Funds should be provided for that Purpose:

It is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Justices at Exchanging Sessions may name Two of their Body in the Day following the next General Quarter Sessions.
